Presidents Message

NO JULY MEETING!!! NO JULY MEETING!!! NO JULY MEETING!!!

MEETING CANCELLED

(It is still recommended that no groups of over 10 meet, especially in an indoor setting.)

A JOYOUS JULY to you all. I hope you're able to enjoy some fireworks and hot dogs.

As I sit at my table and look at my garden, waiting for the tomatoes to ripen (I've harvested radishes, onions, cukes and zucchini), I ponder the state of my world. There's fear of the virus that spreads so easily, sadness for all the families of those who haven't survived, and anger towards the selfish people who don't use common sense. Yet I have hope and faith that the scientists can create a vaccine. After all, our parents & grandparents survived the 1918-1919 pandemic.

I retreat to my sewing room when I'm feeling overwhelmed and work on making something beautiful. My stash has dwindled, but there's still plenty.

Tammy Kratky is still planning to hold the Sweat Shop in late August. Those who want to participate, but from home, she would be willing to make up a kit.

When I think of all the good deeds we have done - all the quilts & masks we have made for people, I can't help but be proud to be a member of our quilt guild.

Be safe until we can see each other again.
