PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

IT'S NOVEMBER...

What happened to October...but wasn't it a pleasant month? Fall temperatures, some rain, turning leaves - something to make us smile before winter sets in.

Inside This Issue

- 1 Message from the President
- 2,3 Raffle and- VP news
- 3 ON LINE calculators
- 4 Board members
- 5 Quilt Show
- 5 Birthdays
- 6 SUNSHINE QUILTS

Now that the quilt show is over, we can start new projects. I hope you'll all consider making at least one Sunshine quilt in this next year. There is a great need for a bit of comfort and caring.

We will be officially voting in our new officers at November's meeting: President, Michele Hayden; Treasurer, Dianne Schlotman; Membership, Rhonda Weber. Julie Boyd will be taking over the Website from Cindy Grimm. Thank you to all.

Fun fact:

In 1621 the Pilgrims held a three day feast. They may have not had turkey but ate deer, lobster, seal, and fruits of the harvest.

Mini quilt and creator news neglected to include Show Challenge ribbon winners on the list. They are: 1st - Nellie Olsen; 2nd - Luanna Gruber; 3rd - Pam Clark; Honorable Mention - Lisa Beeson.

Please bring your ornaments for the Festival of trees to the next meeting. Last year we did not collect hats, scarves, or mittens for donation to schools or other. Please bring what you can to the November or December meetings. If someone would volunteer to collect and distribute them, it would be appreciated.

See you soon.

November Meeting Program

November Meeting Program

This month we'll explore the "3-yard Quilts" phenomenon. You've certainly seen the books at the quilt store. Donna Robertson is the creator. Her books are published through Fabric Cafe; she has several! To paraphrase my Co VP, you've all dazzled and wowed us with your gorgeous quilt creations on display at the quilt show. Now, let's delve into some quick and simple utility quilts to build from 3 yards of fabric, or more if you need a larger quilt. We'll be contacting some of you, who have made these quilts, to show your work, discuss pros and cons, and to offer any insight as to how to proceed with their construction. If you have made some of these "3-yard Quilts", please contact one of us to arrange your input at the November meeting. We'd love to learn from you.

December's meeting will NOT include a potluck. Instead, we will have a Potholder exchange. It will be like last year's Mug-Rug exchange. Please make a Christmas themed potholder and participate in the festivities. You never know what kind of beautiful creation you will win, and it's fun. We will provide one square of Insul-bright for your use in making your potholder. I will have that available to you at the October and November meetings. Search the internet for free potholder patterns if you need assistance. In addition to the exchange, we are planning treats for you all. Yum...

Newsletter News from the creator of newsletter

Isn't a wonderful time of the year. Spent the weekend with family in Illinois. What a beautiful country. We had fun at the pumpkin patch with the Great Grandkids. I f I only had that much energy. Lots of walking for this old lady but I walked slow and really enjoyed the day. Now back to Christmas gifts. Hope this finds everyone health and ready for a new year.
