Presidents Message

The leaves are turning, the farmers are harvesting beans, and my garden is bare. Fall is definitely here. October is upon us and with it, Ericka Plank's trunk show the 9th (bring bars or cookies), and classes the 10th. I hope you can attend part or all of the weekend.

The 12th will be our regular meeting. Bring your projects from Ericka's classes to show. If you're going to the Carol Joy Holling retreat October 23-25, please give Luanna your final payment.

My ornaments and raffle blocks are done. My two sweat shop quilts are done. I made a green tomato cake to celebrate. Yum!

Please, if you can help out with the next quilt show, contact Brenda Barwick.

The same guidelines apply for our next meeting: Masks and safe distancing are mandatory. Sanitizer, gloves and extra masks will be available at the door.

Stay safe, and see you soon.

Kay Dahlquist

Siouxland Samplers Quilt Guild Meeting Minutes September, 2020

- Meeting opened by Kay Dahlquist
- 27 members present. No guests. No new members
- Previous meeting minutes and treasurers report accepted as written.
- please return the meeting hall as clean as we received it. The church complained about too many threads left in the church. No one wants to have to vacuum.
- Monthly mini by Kay Dahlquist. Won by Vicki Williams.
- Offices of Vice President, Secretary, and Newsletter will be voted for next month. Lois Pirozek and Monica Holland told out the duties of their offices. Sharon Bobier not present.
- No Girls Inc at this time due to COVID.
- Alyce King asked that any Sunshine Quilts be put in plastic bags. Places are no readily accepting quilts right now because of COVID.
- Tammy Kratky still has 3 sweatshop kits. There are 15 quilt bats available. 45 kits have been made. Approx. half the quilts will go to assisted living building that burned.
- Luann Gruber said there is still room and time to get into Karol J. holding retreat. Deadline is October meeting.
- Latoma has patterns for Christmas ornaments. Ornaments need returned by November meeting. Let her know if you need more time, a drop off point may be available. Theme this year is Salute to Christmas. The tree skirt and tree topper has been taken care of. Teri is checking with Lowe's about a Christmas tree.
- Mary Backlund moved that the quild donate quilts to Habitat for Humanity for families that accomplish 500 hours toward receiving a home. This policy came from Nancy Mcquire, grant writer for HFH. Approx 4 to 5 throw size quilts per year. Vote taken. Request passed.
- Lori Salem said she received over 100 quilt blocks from our last Sewing Bee. She would like to donate them to the quild. Thank you Lori.
- Lois Pirozek asked that anyone who signed up for October class let her know. Sign up sheet was misplaced. Class time changed to 8. It's a 5 hour class. Need iron and sewing machine. $35. Plus a $14 tool. Afternoon class starts at 1. Need embroidery hoop and colored pencils.
- Erica Plank trunk show Friday Oct 9. 7 o'clock. Members please bring 6-12 bars or donate $5. Need approx 7 helpers to set up at 6. Teri has paper products.
- Brenda Barwick talked about the quilt show. Convention center is secured. There will be rooms at the hotel available Thursday evening. Board room and business library. Set up Friday 8 am. Jennifer Perkins from Harlem Iowa will judge. She will also do a trunk show and a class on quilt restoration. Will ask if she does any other classes. Possibly quilt dating or T-Shirt quilts.
- new quilt show chairs: ribbons-Michele Hayden; Vendors-Michelle Matney; Raffle quilt-Rhonda Webber; Silent auction raffle-Mary Baklund; Banquet-Lois Pirozek; Scrap Dive-Kay Dahlquist.
- There will be no boutique at the quilt show.
- Still need chair for the show judge.
- Quilt show is September 23-26 2021.
- Lois talked about upcoming programs:
- Bring a Mug Rug approx 5 in square in a gift wrap cover to the October quild meeting. It will be used for October program. Game will be the left, right, center dice game.
- Nov will be Tin Ceiling from Sac City.
- Mary Baklund has a tip for the day. Make sure your blocks are squared and pressed. Measure across top, middle and bottom. Average measurements and use this to cut your sashings and borders.
- Use a curved needle for hand quilting. (Sorry, missed who gave this tip).
- Cindy asked for pictures that anyone took at last months COVID challenge. Someone mentioned maybe Joan had taken some.
- Rhonda Webber is making the quilt for the show raffle. Needs help making the Over 100 string pieced squares. She has kits made up to make the blocks.
- Show and tell and meeting ended.
