Presidents Message

It's hard to believe it's September already. Hopefully you've been able to enjoy some of your usual summer fun.

I had a scare last week. A friend I'd lunched with (on her deck) warned me the next day that she had a sore throat and temperature. It turned out to be allergies, but it stopped me cold. I hope I never forget how vulnerable we all are, or fail to have empathy for those who are suffering.

I'm working on my sweat shop quilt tops at home. I hope those of you who met Saturday had a great time. I also have my ornaments for Festival of Trees in the works - I'm feeling productive. (My Mom would have said - "just don't pat yourself too hard").

Please remember to give Brenda Barwick a call if you can volunteer to help with the next quilt show.

Our September meeting will be held again in the sanctuary of the church. We will have a guest speaker, T. Carter, from Virginia, speaking on "History Outside The Box", quilting in the depression.

Erica Plank will have a trunk show on Oct. 9. She will hold two half-day classes on Oct. 10: Cathedral Windows, and using colored pencils on fabric. Please contact Lois Pirozek if you're interested. Space is limited.

Our Oct guild meeting will still be on 10/12

If you were at the meeting in August, THANK YOU for wearing masks and distancing. Please do the same in Sept. Sanitizer and masks will again be available. Please check in with Mary for attendance and Betty for Monthly Minis.

See you. Stay safe. Kay Dahlquist
