

As we usher in November, we at PSSA have so much to be thankful for! Most of all.... we are thankful for all of the childcare providers in South Carolina! Your job is HARD! You work tirelessly taking care of our youngest citizens, often neglecting your personal well-being. We want you to know that you are not alone. Our team is always here to help... even if it's only to vent! Thank you from all of us!

What you have been waiting for is FINALLY here!

After months of research, website building, and learning an entirely new program, the team at Palmetto Shared Services Alliance is pleased to announce that our BRAND NEW Online University is up and running-ready for you and your staff to take courses! Our new platform is located on our website - www.palmettoservices.org - and is open for all providers, not just members, to take courses. Click the button below to take a look!

Our new platform has some fantastic features that will make getting your mandatory training hours so much easier!

- This platform is DIRECTLY connected to the SC Endeavors website- No more waiting for weeks courses to appear on your transcript!
- You can access our online trainings through our website - www.palmettoservices.org - or you can search for our trainings on the SC Endeavors platform.
- No more codes: Our Professional Development team has researched pricing for comperable trainings and has settled on a flat, hourly fee.
- All courses listed on the platform are BRAND NEW! PSSA has worked tirelessly to learn a new course development program and has rewritten every training!
- Trainings are more interactive and engaging!
- All trainings on the platform are approved for DSS credit!

We want to recognize the amount of work that went into creating our new Online University! Susan^(left) and Emily^(right) have worked tirelessly to make this the perfect platform for all of our learners! Thanks you so much ladies!

We also want to thank the team at SC Endeavors for all of your help making this possible! We are so excited to be fully connected to your site!
