

Beginner Wheel Curriculum

2024, Session 3 (June 10 - August 3rd)

Welcome to Looking Glass Pottery Studio! Whether this is your first time here, or you've been here before, we are happy to have you join us. This is a Beginner Wheelthrowing Class, meaning you do not need to have any experience on the wheel. The class is 8 weeks long and includes 8 lessons with your instructor, plus open studio time. Each week you'll learn something new, until it's time to wrap up your pieces! Happy throwing!

Week	Agenda
1	Demo: Learn basic wheelthrowing techniques & how to throw a cylinder Work time: practice and create ware to trim next week
2	Demo: Learn how to trim your cylinder(s) Work Time: Continue practicing throwing, practice trimming
3	Demo: Learn how to pull and attach a handle to complete the mug of your dreams! Work Time: Practice throwing/trimming, practice handles
4	Demo: Learn how to throw a bean dip bowl to bring to your next summer cookout! Work Time: Practice/make projects
5	Demo: Learn about Glazes and how to apply them to your pieces Work Time: Practice/make projects, practice glazing
6	Demo: Learn how to make a hanging planter for your mid-summer porch plants. Work Time: Wet throw focus- in class and open studio.
7	Demo: Today is the last wet clay day! No Demo. Work Time: Trim all remaining pieces & make sure they are on the shelf.
8	Demo: No demo, chat about results of learning. Work Time: Celebrate, glaze work

Be sure to follow all instructor guidance during your class, both for safety and the best throwing experience.

What is Open Studio?

The studio has "Open Studio" hours for you to attend to continue working on your pieces, outside of your regular class time. Equipment is available on a first-come, first served basis, however we ask that if there is a queue, you limit your time on a wheel/using equipment to 1 hour.

- Thursdays: 5pm - 9pm
- Fridays: 12pm-5pm
- Saturdays: 12:30pm - 4pm

We look forward to seeing what you create! ♥