WELCOME TO THE UNRESTRICTED VIEW HORROR FILM FESTIVAL 2018

Since becoming the resident theatre company at The Hen & Chickens Theatre in 1999, the team at Unrestricted View have dedicated themselves to giving up-and-coming theatre companies, writers, actors and comedians a platform to showcase their talents. We were so delighted and proud that with the first UVFF in April 2016, we were able to add filmmakers to that list.

We received hundreds of submissions for this year's horror festival and it was great to see so many amazing films!

I really do need to thank our wonderful programming team:

Tony Sands, Jenn Dale, Felicity Wren, Martin Stocks & Mark Lyminister. Also a massive thanks to our judges: Martina Cole, Emilie Arnold, Barry Ryan, David Walton, Richard Glover, Si Spencer, Angela Peters, Chris Nials & Alex Humphrey.

After this year's horror fest I will be stepping down as Festival Director and moving into a producing role. We are delighted to announce that Tony Sands will be taking over the Director role.

Tony has been part a key of the programming team from the beginning and we are really excited about what he will bring to the mix.

James Wren
Festival Director

Tony Sands
Deputy Festival Director

So on behalf of the bar manager Lucie (and her fantastic team), Felicity, Mark, Tony & Myself, We hope you have a great festival!

THE HEN & CHICKENS THEATRE BAR

Conveniently located close to Highbury & Islington tube station, the Hen & Chickens Theatre Bar is a well-established watering hole in this culturally-rich London district. The bar's intimate upstairs stage has a long tradition of fringe theatre and stand-up comedy; from emerging theatre groups to performers such as Jimmy Carr and Russell Brand, 'the Chicks', as it is also known, has hosted a huge selection of acts over the years. The Manager (Lucie) and her team pride themselves on making sure customers have a great time and stand ready to help settle your post-film frights with a comforting drink.
