The Si Spencer Award

In February 2021 we sadly lost our dear friend Si. Si was a musician, writer, director, poet, quizmaster and a wonderful human. We miss him greatly.

Si was a judge for UVFF from the very first festival. He never wavered in his enthusiasm and support for up and coming talent.

Honouring the man he was, The Si Spencer Award will be presented to a UK filmmaker whose film is judged (by his wife and a panel of industry friends) to best reflect Si's tastes.

The winner will receive:

A cash prize

A free of charge screening at The Hen & Chickens Theatre (which can be used for a cast and crew/friends and family/industry screening).

A waiver for future submissions to UV film festivals.

A trophy.

THE HEN & CHICKENS
THEATRE BAR

109 St Paul's Road,
Highbury Corner. N1 2NA

Conveniently located close to Highbury & Islington tube station, the Hen & Chickens Theatre Bar is a well-established watering hole in this culturally-rich London district. Just a short stroll from Highbury Fields, the pub is perfect for a spot of pre- or post film refreshment.

The bar's intimate upstairs stage has a long tradition of fringe theatre, film and stand-up comedy; from emerging theatre groups and filmmakers to performers such as Jimmy Carr and Russell Brand, 'the Chicks', as it is also known, is also home to Unrestricted View Film Festivals.

Loved by locals – many of whom say 'the whole pub's a stage', the Hen & Chickens is a unique London pub, where customers can enjoy their favourite tippie whilst embracing both the characters treading the boards and those propping up the bar ...
