Dear Melissa:

Congratulations on winning the CJIS Meritorious Service Award for Service Above and Beyond in the July through September quarter. You should be proud that your efforts and dedication were so clearly visible to your fellow members that they nominated you to receive this honor.

I want to personally take this opportunity to thank you for your impressive service and to commend you for winning this award. It is a clear recognition by your fellow members that you exemplify the Department's Fundamental Values.

Again, congratulations on your award! Keep up the good work!

Sincerely,

James D. Sewell, Ph.D., Director
Division of Criminal Justice Information Systems
