

Dear Vendor,
Friends Of Culture in collaboration with Lady Pepper will be hosting the 2nd annual, Curry With A Flavor Festival on Saturday, June 4th, from 10:00 a.m. to 11:00 p.m., in Crescent Park, 2300 North Peters St. New Orleans, La 70117.

We are requesting your participation in this authentic event.

Please read the following information carefully.

Vending fees:	Food.	$550
	Merchandise.	$400
	Non-profits.	$300

Application deadline, Friday, April 15th, 5:00 p.m. No extensions will be granted. Every vendor will require a permit from City Hall at the cost of $50. Checks or M.O.'s only is accepted. You will be notified by the promoter when to apply for your vending permit.
Set up time 10:00 a.m. to 12:00 noon, break down time 9:00 p.m.

Every vendor must display an ABC, restaurant type fire extinguisher in their booth for inspection by the fire captain. No open flames until he's on site.

All booths will be 10 x 10. Please protect the ground from grease and oil. Booths should be kept throughout the event, and after.

All vendors must have a hand wash station set up with soap and paper towel. (A five-gallon container of water with a tap, and a five-gallon bucket as a catch basin). Hand sanitizer should be placed on your table as well.

No selling of alcohol beverages, soda or water in any booth. Curry With A Flavor Festival will be the sole owner with a liquor license. This rule will be enforced.

Vendors will be issued five wrist bands, these should be worn throughout the day in your booth. Any additional helper must purchase an admission ticket, and a different color wrist band will be issued. We will need the names of your four helpers.

A vendor coordinator will be on site to address any concerns. She has permission from the promoter to enforce all the rules.

This is a non-smoking environment.

Every individual will be subject to search upon entry to the park. No outside drinks or food.

We appreciate your business.
