May/June NEWS -

Hello everyone, looking forward to seeing many of you next week at the meeting! Hope you have all been getting out to enjoy some of the good weather (been a little crazy though hot/cold/hot/cold!).

It was great to see a few of you at the show this past weekend, Sunday was a beautiful day, I managed to miss the bad Saturday weather!

I will try and call Alameda Park soon and see about setting something up for our September picnic/meeting. Or if anyone has any other ideas please let me know! Kathie we will all miss your beautiful place it was my dream house 😊. We wish you the best and happiness in your new location!

Our new website is now live. There are new instructions on the first page for how to log into the Members Only section. Each person will now have their own unique login, rather than everyone using the same one. Tammy set up everyone from one of the last lists I gave her. If you have any issues getting it to work, please let me know, and I can get Tammy to help. One thing she did note was the first setup/resetting your password works best on a regular computer versus your phone. Then after that you can use via your phone. If you have any pictures, updates you would like for the site just let me know and we can have Tammy add them!

Heather
