Caribbean Sports Organization Adopts Casa Protegida Julia de Burgos as the Official Cause for "La Epica Gravel Grinder"

San Juan, Puerto Rico — October 22, 2024 – Caribbean Sports Organization is proud to announce its partnership with Casa Protegida Julia de Burgos as the official non-profit beneficiary for La Epica Gravel Grinder. This collaboration marks a new chapter in the event's mission to give back to the community and make a lasting impact beyond sports.

As part of this partnership, the 5K & 10K runs scheduled for Sunday, November 17, 2024 at 8:00 a.m. at Ponce's Lineal Boardwalk, will specifically highlight Casa Protegida Julia de Burgos mission, bringing attention to its vital work in providing shelter, support, and empowerment to survivors of domestic violence. A portion of the proceeds from these races, as well as other fundraising efforts, will directly benefit the organization and its initiatives.

"We are excited and honored to support Casa Protegida Julia de Burgos," said Dr. Ernesto L. Collazo Batista, CEO of Caribbean Sports Organization. "Their mission aligns with our values of community and resilience, and we are committed to using our platform to promote social impact. Together, we aim to raise awareness and funds that will empower individuals and families who have experienced domestic violence."

Participants in La Epica Gravel Grinder will also have the opportunity to engage in additional fundraising activities throughout the event weekend, which runs from November 15-17, 2024 at the Ponce Hilton.

*About Casa Protegida Julia de Burgos:

Casa Protegida Julia de Burgos is a non-profit organization dedicated to offering comprehensive services to women and children escaping domestic violence. Through temporary shelter, advocacy, counseling, and educational programs, it aims to restore safety, dignity, and self-sufficiency to survivors.
