

Chapter 14

Invitation to Translation

[parentheses added for clarity]

“Each individual will learn, in the upward ascent, that every negative thought and feeling becomes a weight upon his body and a drag upon his soul. Negative thoughts and feelings [and false beliefs] have power not only to retard one's progress but to stop it completely, unless overcome. Mortal thinking is mostly negative, discordant, selfish thinking. From here on the negatives must be completely understood. It is necessary to know that the negative thoughts and feelings contain all the laws of the lower realms of physical darkness. As long as an individual abides in the vibrations of negative thinking and negative feeling, [and false beliefs] he cannot possibly progress into the light or walk with power” [The Truth Behind Thought, Chapter 1:3 Secrets of Eternity by Annalee Skarin].

I invite you all to consider translation as a viable option in mortality. A new paradigm, a new belief! We have all been growing up, little bit at a time...how are we growing up? (much to ponder in that thought). With the world or with uplifting thoughts, with god/God or a mix of both?

One of the beliefs we have bought into in mortality is that we are all going to die one day (our physical body). We buy into that belief because of the evidence we see around us, therefore our mortal bodies will manifest those very beliefs of death, (in all its forms) and therefore every cell in our body begins to deteriorate, little by little, and we observe old age creeping in... are you with me? Welcome to mortality!

We are a self-fulfilling prophecy of our thinking! This essay is going to present a new approach to thinking and becoming. Another path that few understand. It's not taught anymore, or is it? Enoch and his city of believers were translated and never tasted of mortal death, and they were taught how:

The Principles of Translation

“By faith Enoch was translated that he should not see death; and [death] was not found [in the path he took], because God [god] had translated him: for before his translation he had this testimony, that he pleased [god] God. [How did he please god/God? We will pursue that question]

“But without faith it is impossible to please him: for he that cometh to [god] God must believe that he [god] is, and that he [god] is a rewarder of them that diligently seek him. [Does this sound like [god] God would restrict one from seeking translation? No not in the least. “[god] God is a rewarder of them that diligently seek Him.”]

(New Testament | Hebrews 11:5 - 6)

Before we consider the path that Enoch and his people took, I might remind you that there are others who have taken that same path and were translated... Melchizedek and his city, Moses, the three Nephites, John the Revelator and others we know not of, perhaps Moroni, Alma, and surely there are some in our day.

This essay is about learning the principles of translation and achieving the results. It is my belief that all those who sought translation, sought “life” in mortality and not “death” in all its forms; something that we have failed to see clearly; hence our understanding leans toward death and the majority of people fulfill that reality within themselves. Each of us is a self-fulfilling prophecy of our own thoughts! The truth about “life” or “translation” is that it leads any sincere seeker to the question: “how is it done?” The answer has always been right in front of us, but for the most part, we have not sought to “diligently,” seek it in faith alone, but we have bought into the many paths and false “beliefs” that lead to death in all its variety.

Enoch learned “by faith alone” to believe in the promises of God that translation was and is a reality! He learned that translation is not reserved for those that God [the person] chooses, but for those who choose “god” through faith! We all reap what we sow! (Matthew 13:18-23) That is an eternal truth! The Lord said: “I the Lord am bound when ye do what I say; but when ye do not what I say, ye have no promise” (D&C 82: 10). The promise of translation is for any who seek it diligently. It is not beholden to race or religion, “God [god] is no respecter of persons.” The scripture informs us that “[god] God had translated him [Enoch]” because Enoch “diligently” sought for [god] God! To “diligently” seek for “god” is the “key.” What does it really mean to seek “god” without the caps?” The little “god” found is scriptures and in this essay represents our “divine” potential to become in attribute and character as “God” is! [Lectures on Faith 7:15-17]!!!

Let me offer some suggestions that resonate with my soul. To “seek” god/God is to seek to become like Him through faith alone. What kind of faith is that? Did you know there are two kinds of faith? There is the passive faith that the Lord warned us about. He said:

“Not everyone that saith unto me, Lord, Lord, shall enter into the kingdom of heaven; but he that doeth the will of my Father which is in heaven.

Many will say to me in that day, Lord, Lord, have we not prophesied in thy name? and in thy name have cast out devils? and in thy name done many wonderful works?

And then will I profess unto them, I never knew you: depart from me, ye that work iniquity.” The [Inspired Version of Matthew 7:32-33 says it a little differently, it says: “Ye never knew me”] which puts the focus on mankind [hence the meaning of the little “god” presented throughout this essay]. I am sharing with you how to get to “know the Lord,” not by professing his name [lip service] casually but by becoming like Him in character, through faith alone! [which again is the definition of the little “god” in us, waiting for us individually to embrace it]. (New Testament | Matthew 7:21 - 23).

Notice, the Lord said: “he that doeth the will of my Father” shall enter the kingdom of heaven... This begs the question, where does “will” come from? Does “will” come from Father or Christ or organized religion through all its ordinances and ceremonies and priesthoods? NO! Does “will” come from the scriptures? NO! Does “will” come from any temple of brick and mortar? NO!

“Will” comes from only one place, and that one place is within us! Our “will” is our determination to accomplish something and in this context, it is to become the “will” of our Father in Heaven! What is Father’s “will?” It means to become “love!” A “holy love!” To become “virtue!” A “holy and moral virtue!” And every other divine and holy attribute. That is the secret and grand key. To “become” like God through [godliness]! Organized religion, the scriptures, and any temple of brick and mortar can point us in the right direction; even Father and Christ can point us in the right direction but none of these can give us the “will” to transform our thinking, and our beliefs or our lives to repent and forsake our fallen and carnal natures unless we have the “will” [internal fortitude; desire, determination] to do it [to manifest godliness] ourselves! This requires the greatest “work” and “innate service” we can ever perform, the only inner service that faith alone can accomplish.

And this brings us to the other kind of faith that works miracles in our lives, and it is what made “god,” “God.” What you are reading now is the truth that will make one free and “one” with “god,” God.

Lectures on Faith 1-7 teaches the kind of faith that leads to translation! It was removed from our [LDS] scriptures in 1921. But that is not the only place the principles of translation are taught. The Old and New Testaments are full of it if we have eyes to see and ears to hear. It is called the “higher law” or “spirit of the law” and what we are left with now is the lesser portion of the law that comes from the “form and structures” of organized religion, which is obedience to the “letter of the law,” which produces “death” in the end unless we wake up spiritually.

It is no wonder we do not know about translation. How many of you have actually read Lectures on Faith and pondered them more than once in your life? It teaches of a faith called the “effects of faith” and that kind of faith is not given to us from Father or Christ or organized religion, with all its ceremonies, ordinances and priesthoods; it can only come from our divine “will” within through the “effects of our faith alone!” Hence, the “effects of our faith” is literally the “will of the Father” that Christ sought diligently for, and is called the attributes of godliness and holiness of character that we develop within ourselves through our faith in them!!!... desiring them earnestly, in every moment of every day until we become it, in thought, word, and deed. This is when the two great commandments [Matthew 5:43-48 & Matthew 22: 34-40] become the manifestation of what we have become, a “temple of the living God,” [2 Corinthians 6:16-18] not “made with hands” [2 Corinthians 5:1; Hebrews 9:1] and the veil of unbelief will disappear!

All the divine attributes of godliness... of love and its train of attendants, of virtue, gratitude, and honesty is the foundation to translation in mortality, which leads to a holy and divine character! On the other hand, “organized religion” teaches that salvation comes through obedience to the ordinances and ceremonies of the gospel seen through the “letter of the law” which leads eventually to the “death” of the mortal body and then later, a resurrection in a telestial, terrestrial, or celestial glory based on the mindset and beliefs of those kingdoms, which is a choice of one’s own “will.”

The whole plan of salvation points to man’s potential to become as God is [Psalms 82:6; John 10: 34-39]. The journey into godliness/holiness is very simple and beautiful and it works by the effects of faith alone, which doesn’t go well for those who seek power and authority over others. As humans in a fallen state, we make salvation complicated, by serving our own ego.

Let’s go back to the simplicity of the gospel or “good news” made available to every person of every race, with or without the formalism of religion.

We learn from the Savior himself that there are only two commandments [instructions to the wise] that if the obedient follow completely, wholly, with all their heart, might, mind and soul [Matthew 22: 34-38] a real transformation can and will take place inside us, it is called being “born again!” [John 3:1-13].

When we fail to obey those two great commandments through faith alone; it is then that God condescends and gives us the formalism of ordinances and ceremonies [the lesser law]. He has done this all throughout history and today. Ancient and modern Israel has the potential to wake up to the truth found through the “effects of faith” alone, the higher law of obedience that can lead to translation here in mortality, if we hunger and thirst for it diligently!

Obedience to the temporal law [ordinances and ceremonies] caters to our 5 senses and over time we become addicted to the “forms and structures” of organized religion [thinking it will save us] because it pleases and strokes our ego, our pride, and self-righteousness. Our own LDS Bible Dictionary calls this type of worship “formalism” which is a type of “idolatry!”

Holiness

“According to the Old Testament, things or places were holy that were set apart for a sacred purpose; the opposite of holy is therefore common or profane (1 Sam. 21:5; Ezek. 22:26; 42:20; 44:23; 48:13–15). Similarly a holy person meant one who held a sacred office. The Israelites were a holy people because they stood in a special relationship to Jehovah. Under the guidance of the Prophets it was seen that what distinguished Jehovah from the gods of the heathen was His personal character. The word holy therefore came to refer to moral character (Lev. 11:44; 19:2; 21:8; Isa. 6:3–8). Israel must be holy in character because the God of Israel was holy [in character] (Jer. 7:4–7; see also Matt. 5:48). The Law of Holiness (Lev. 17–26) shows how the attempt was made by means of ceremonial observances to secure this holiness of character. The attempt failed [It will always fail] because the later Jews observed the letter and neglected the spirit; they attached more importance to the ceremonial than to the moral; and the result was a lapse into formalism. But in the writings of the Prophets it is clearly laid down that the value of worship in the eyes of God depends upon the personal character of the worshipper.”

[<https://www.churchofjesuschrist.org/study/scriptures/bd/holiness?lang=eng>]

It is obvious that the “attempt was made by ceremonial observances to secure this holiness of character. The attempt failed” for ancient Israel and it will for modern Israel because there is absolutely NO “ceremonial” ordinance or ceremony that has the power to sanctify and purify our soul, that is impossible in the eternal realm! There were two great commandments the Lord gave us in this mortal world and if we immerse ourselves in them completely, they will transform who we are. The reason for this is that through the innate “effects of faith” alone we learn to “love God [godliness within ourselves 1st] with all our heart, mind, might and strength and our neighbor as our self;” fulfilling literally the law of “life” from the “tree of life” and receive the promised blessing of translation as Enoch and others have done in their mortal journey and never tasted a mortal death! The only “death” that Enoch and his people experienced individually was the death of false beliefs, [a fallen] and carnal nature. Death then has no claim on those who partake only from this “tree of life” through the effects of faith within themselves! The “tree of life” symbolizes the “waters of life, the “bread of life” and the “breath of life.” This is a powerful truth and the promise of god/God to any who seek it diligently!

The story or allegory of the Garden of Eden is really the story of ourselves from an eternal perspective and the two trees that exist within each of us is a choice we make. Which one are we choosing? Do we follow the serpent to “the tree of knowledge of good and evil” or do we immerse ourselves into the doctrine of Christ and Life, even the waters of life, the bread of life, and the breath of life as Christ taught? The scriptural allegory is that the “tree of life” will only produce “life;” therefore “death” can have no claim at all on us! “I the Lord am bound when ye do what I say; but when ye do not what I say, ye have no promise” (D&C 82: 10).

On the other hand, the “tree of knowledge of good and evil” is the path that most people get hooked into and it is the only tree that produces “death” in two ways [physical death and spiritual death (keeping us from reaching our greatest potential)]. All who have partaken of the “tree of knowledge of good and evil” are in need of repentance. Therefore all organized religions are the offspring from the “tree of knowledge of good and evil;” and have succumbed to the “death” blow in some form unless they repent.

This brings us to the allegory of the whole Garden of Eden experience, that sheds light on “life;” as we learn from the Cherubim’s, who guard the “tree of life!”

Cherubim’s, who guard the way to the “tree of life,” are teachers who teach the way to the “tree of life.” They symbolize the “truth” within each of us [our potential] that can never be destroyed; hence “hope” [repentance] is always available. The Cherubim’s metaphorically [are the truth within us, the “light of Christ” (Alma 28:14; Moroni 7: 18-19; D&C 88: 7)] the “kingdom of God” abiding in you [Luke 17:21]. These metaphors teach us of our potential to become again true sons and daughters of god/God by being “born again” in this second estate [mortality] as we did in our first estate through the “effects of faith” as we must do it again but this time with a mortal body! Hallelujah!

Scriptural symbolism teaches us that all who come into mortality receive a “water baptism,” through our mortal birth [the watery womb]! Many are they that are called into mortality [and choose death] and few choose life! All are chosen for “life” but all do not choose life, why? “Because their hearts are set so much upon the things of this world, and aspire to the honors of men, that they do not learn this one lesson... That the rights [to the tree of life within us] are inseparably connected with the powers of heaven, and that the powers of heaven cannot be controlled nor handled only upon the principles of righteousness;” which is through the “effects of faith alone,” coming from within us!

When our mind and heart [symbolizing heaven and earth within us] are one in divine love [a love for pureness, a love for holiness, a love of honesty and a love of virtue] we have no more desire to do sin but to do good continually [1John 3:9]. Remember that Cherubim's of pure gold were placed anciently on the Mercy Seat in the "Holy of Holies" in the "from and structure" of true temple worship. This scriptural metaphor re-establishes the fact that to be made of "pure gold" ourselves, all the impurities of a fallen and carnal nature are gone completely, [repented of, sacrificed on the symbolic altar] because we desire them no more [they are burnt up]. One literally walks away from fallen [false beliefs] and carnal desires. If we continue this pursuit diligently and seek to partake only from the "tree of life" within we will experience translation in mortality and have communion with Enoch and his people, the Church of the Firstborn [Hebrews 12: 22-23]. The only way one will ever know of this truth is if you experience it for yourselves through this process, here in mortality! I will share some revealing truths from Lectures on Faith that I hope will draw you into a deep pondering and meditative state, to a new experience with "faith," the "effects of faith" alone! Which leads to translation if you desire it, because it is a choice!! Even though "The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints" has removed Lectures of Faith from our scriptures in 1921, does not mean we need to remove it from our minds and hearts where heaven and earth come together as "one!"

Lectures on Faith (highlights)

[brackets added for clarity]

"Faith being the first principle in revealed religion, and the foundation of all righteousness, necessarily claims the first place in a course of lectures which are designed to unfold to the understanding the doctrine of Jesus Christ" (Lecture 1:1). "If men were duly to consider themselves, and turn their thoughts and reflections to the operations of their own minds, they would readily discover that it is faith, and faith only, [which transforms them] which is the moving cause of all action, in them; that without it, both mind and body would be in a state of inactivity, and all their exertions would cease, both physical and mental (Lecture 1:10).

“Let us here observe, that after any portion of the human family [regardless of race or religion] are made acquainted with the important fact that there is a God who has created and does uphold all things, the extent of their knowledge, respecting his character and glory, will depend upon their diligence and faithfulness in seeking after him, until like Enoch [a translated being and his city of believers] the brother of Jared, and Moses, they shall obtain faith in God, and power with him to behold him face to face” (Lecture of Faith 2:55).

“But it is also necessary that men should have an idea that he [God the Father or Christ] is no respecter of persons [regardless of race or religion]; for with the idea of all the other excellencies in his character, and this one wanting, men could not exercise faith in him, because if he were a respecter of persons, they could not tell what their privileges were, nor how far they were authorized to exercise faith in him, or whether they were authorized to do it at all, but all must be confusion; but no sooner are the minds of men made acquainted with the truth on this point, that he [and we must too] is no respecter of persons, [race or religion] than they see that they [all people] have authority by faith [alone] to lay hold on eternal life [as God did] the richest boon of heaven, because God is no respecter of persons, and that every man in every nation has an equal privilege” [potential by faith alone] (Lecture on Faith 3:23). [“Every man (and woman) in every nation has an equal privilege” to manifest it!]

“Having said so much we shall proceed to examine the attributes of God, as set forth in his revelations to the human family, and to show how necessary correct ideas of his attributes are, to enable men to exercise faith in him. For without these ideas being planted in the minds of men, it would be out of the power of any person or persons to exercise faith in God so as to obtain eternal life. So that the divine communications made to man in the first instance, were designed to establish in their minds the ideas necessary to enable them to exercise faith in God, and through this means to be partakers of his glory” (Lecture on Faith 4:3). [This is a profound truth that few understand... they don’t understand it because they are not taught it and therefore every time you see the word “God” used in scripture, you should remember the little “god” comes first and must be awakened within us so that we can manifest godliness of character, the same way Father and Christ did it]. This is the “only” way we can become “one” with them.

“As the Son partakes of the fulness of the Father through the Spirit [the attributes of godliness], so the saints are, by the same Spirit [same attributes of godliness], to be partakers of the same fulness, to enjoy the same glory; for as the Father and the Son are one, so in like manner the saints are to be one in them, through the love of the Father” (Lecture on Faith 5:3).

“But those who have not made this sacrifice to God [of letting go completely all false beliefs and all carnal nature desires], do not know that the course which they pursue is well pleasing in his sight; for whatever may be their belief or their opinion, it is a matter of doubt and uncertainty in their mind; and where doubt and uncertainty is, there faith is not, nor can it be. For doubt and faith do not exist in the same person at the same time. So that persons whose minds are under doubts and fears [false beliefs and practices like fornication, dishonesty, lies, murder, adultery, polygamy, LGBTQ lifestyles] cannot have unshaken confidence, and where unshaken confidence is not, there faith is weak, and where faith is weak, the persons will not be able to contend against all the opposition, tribulations and afflictions which they will have to encounter in order to be heirs of God, and joint heirs with Christ Jesus; and they will grow weary in their minds, and the adversary will have power over them and destroy them” [How? by sin, doubts and fears that will keep them from fulfilling their greatest potential] (Lecture of Faith 6:12).

“Let us here offer some explanation in relation to faith that our meaning may be clearly comprehended: We ask, then, what are we to understand by a man's working by faith? We answer: We understand that when a man works by faith, he works by mental exertion instead of physical force: [the “letter of the law,” it is the same thing] for it is by words instead of exerting his physical powers, [through ordinances and ceremonies] with which every being works when he works by faith (Lecture of Faith 7:3). [see “dead works” Hebrews 6:1-2; Hebrews 9: 14; D&C 22: 1-4]. Most people do not understand this simple truth, our ego wants to hold on to the “letter of the law,” and those who so choose will experience physical death.

“These teachings of the Savior must clearly show unto us the nature of salvation; and what he proposed unto the human family when he proposed to save them—That he proposed to make them like unto himself; and he was like the Father, the great prototype of all saved beings: And for any portion of the human family [regardless of race or religion] to be assimilated into their likeness is to be saved; and to be unlike them is to be destroyed [stopped or dammed in our journey because of false ideas and choices]: and on this hinge turns the door of salvation. [with Father in Celestial Glory].

“Who cannot see, then, that salvation is the effect of faith?” for as we have previously observed, all the heavenly beings work by this principle; and it is because they are able so to do that they are saved: [As God is] for nothing but this could save them. And this is the lesson which the God of heaven, by the mouth of all his [true] holy prophets, has been endeavoring to teach to the world. Hence, we are told, that without faith it is impossible to please God; and that salvation [godhood] is of faith, that it might be by grace [grace is another word for “divine nature” or “spirit of the law” found in scriptures] to the end, the promise might be sure to all the seed. Romans 4:16: — And that Israel, [ancient and modern] who followed after the law of righteousness, has not attained to the law of righteousness. Wherefore? [Why] because they sought it not by faith, but as it were by the works of the law; [the letter of the law] for they stumbled at that stumbling stone (Lecture on Faith 7: 16-17).

The “works of the law,” include all the ordinances and ceremonies of organized religions, and they cannot, worlds without end, exalt a single soul to godhood in Celestial Glory; their purpose is to awaken mankind to the “spirit of the law.” The only power the letter of the law has is to awaken us spiritually! And that is a beautiful awakening. The “works of the law” are the “letter of the law” and their purpose is again to awaken all those who are slumbering and asleep to the “higher law” that comes only through the “effects of our faith,” alone, which is the “will” of the Father.

Godhood comes only through the effects of their faith in character and attribute like Father and Christ and this can be accomplished anywhere; inside or outside of organized religion! This is the faith that transcends the “letter of the law” that ancient Israel and modern Israel have gotten so caught up in... “for they stumbled at that stumbling stone.” Or as Paul said: “the letter killeth, but the spirit giveth life” (2 Corinthians 3:6). The “spirit of the law” is the true mystery into godliness within ourselves!

The choice is and always has been ours. For those who die a physical death will come to understand that the principles of the resurrection are identical to translation. One takes place here in mortality and the other takes place after the death of the mortal body when the person repents and is truly “born again.” What makes the difference is “beliefs.” Belief connected to “formalism” or beliefs connected to the “effects of faith alone,” applied to the two great commandments as discussed! We have Celestial beliefs available to anyone innately! Celestial thinking in mortality can and will bring about translation for those who seek it diligently; or those same beliefs after a mortal death will bring about a celestial resurrection as well. Terrestrial beliefs bring about a terrestrial resurrection and Telestial beliefs bring about a telestial resurrection [1Corinthians 15:40-54].

Some Scriptures that lead and invite us into Translation and becoming a manifestation of that truth:

Yet ye say, The way of the Lord is not equal. Hear now, O house of Israel; Is not my way equal? are not your ways unequal?

26 When a righteous man turneth away from his righteousness, and committeth iniquity, and dieth in them; for his iniquity that he hath done shall he die. [this is physical death and spiritual death].

27 Again, when the wicked man turneth away from his wickedness that he hath committed, and doeth that which is lawful and right, he shall save his soul alive.

28 Because he considereth, and turneth away from all his transgressions that he hath committed, he shall surely live, *he shall not die. [physically or spiritually, the promise of translation is a matter of seeking it diligently by faith alone, and “he shall not die”].

29 Yet saith the house of Israel, The way of the Lord is not equal. O house of Israel, are not my ways equal? are not your ways unequal?

30 Therefore I will judge you, O house of Israel, every one according to his ways [his own beliefs], saith the Lord GOD. Repent, and turn yourselves from all your transgressions; [carnal natures and false beliefs] so, iniquity shall not be your ruin. [parentheses added for clarity]
(Old Testament | Ezekiel 18:25 - 30)

“THERE was a man of the Pharisees, named Nicodemus, a ruler of the Jews:

2 The same came to Jesus by night, and said unto him, Rabbi, we know that thou art a teacher come from God: for no man can do these miracles that thou doest, except God be with him.

3 Jesus answered and said unto him, Verily, verily, I say unto thee, Except a man be born again, he cannot see the kingdom of God.

4 Nicodemus saith unto him, How can a man be born when he is old? can he enter the second time into his mother's womb, and be born?

5 Jesus answered, Verily, verily, I say unto thee, Except a man be born of water [this is mortal birth] and of the Spirit, [this is the fruits of the Holy Spirit] he cannot enter into the kingdom of God.

6 That which is born of the flesh is flesh [this is the watery womb of birth]; and that which is born of the Spirit is spirit [this is our immersion into the fruits of the Holy Spirit].

7 Marvel not that I said unto thee, Ye must be born again.

8 The wind bloweth [the wind symbolizes that being “born again” does not come from organized religion but from our faith in the Spirit of godliness] where it listeth, and thou hearest the sound thereof, but canst not tell whence it cometh, and whither it goeth:

so is every one that is born of the Spirit

9 Nicodemus answered and said unto him, How can these things be?

10 Jesus answered and said unto him, Art thou a master of Israel, and knowest not these things?

11 Verily, verily, I say unto thee, We speak that we do know, and testify that we have seen; and ye receive not our witness.

12 If I have told you earthly things, and ye believe not, how shall ye believe, if I tell you of heavenly things?”

(New Testament | John 3:1 - 12)

“Seeing ye have purified your souls in obeying the truth through the Spirit unto unfeigned love of the brethren, see that ye love one another with a pure heart fervently:

23 Being born again, not of corruptible seed, but of incorruptible, by the word of God, which liveth and abideth forever [in you].

24 For all flesh is as grass, and all the glory of man as the flower of grass. The grass withereth, and the flower thereof falleth away:

25 But the word of the Lord endureth forever [in you]. And this is the word which by the gospel is preached unto you.

(New Testament | 1 Peter 1:22 - 25)

“For, said he, I have repented of my sins, and have been redeemed of the Lord; behold I am born of the Spirit.

25 And the Lord said unto me: Marvel not that all mankind, yea, men and women, all nations, kindreds, tongues and people, must be born again; yea, born of God, changed from their carnal and fallen state, to a state of righteousness, being redeemed of God, becoming his sons and daughters; [God is no respecter of persons of race or religion but of righteousness only through faith alone]

26 And thus they become new creatures; and unless they do this, they can in nowise inherit the kingdom of God.
(Book of Mormon | Mosiah 27:24 - 26)

“And now I say unto you that this is the order after which I am called, yea, to preach unto my beloved brethren, yea, and every one that dwelleth in the land; yea, to preach unto all, both old and young, both bond and free; yea, I say unto you the aged, and also the middle aged, and the rising generation; yea, to cry unto them that they must repent and be born again.

50 Yea, thus saith the Spirit: Repent, all ye ends of the earth, for the kingdom of heaven is soon at hand; yea, the Son of God cometh in his glory, in his might, majesty, power, and dominion. Yea, my beloved brethren, I say unto you, that the Spirit saith: Behold the glory of the King of all the earth; and also the King of heaven shall very soon shine forth among all the children of men.

51 And also the Spirit saith unto me, yea, crieth unto me with a mighty voice, saying: Go forth and say unto this people—Repent, for except ye repent ye can in nowise inherit the kingdom of heaven.” (Book of Mormon | Alma 5:49 - 51) [Organized religion is here to wake people up into a personal journey of repentance and being born again of the Holy Spirit].

“Now I say unto you that ye must repent, and be born again; for the Spirit saith if ye are not born again ye cannot inherit the kingdom of heaven;
(Book of Mormon | Alma 7:14)

The “kingdom of heaven is like unto...” (Matthew 13; 20; 22; 25) any person who diligently seeketh for the “tree of life,” which gives only life. Lehi’s vision or dream showed how some people came and partook for a while but fell back into false beliefs and carnal ways and were lost.

“And it came to pass that I beheld that the rod of iron, which my father had seen, was the word of God, which led to the fountain of living waters, or to the tree of life; which waters are a representation of the love of God; and I also beheld that the tree of life was a representation of the love of God.”
(Book of Mormon | 1 Nephi 11:25). Again, the “love of God” is no respecter of persons, race or religion. Hallelujah!

“Blessed are they that do his commandments, [the two great commandments] that they may have right to the tree of life, and may enter in through the gates into the city.
15 For without are dogs, and sorcerers, and whoremongers, and murderers, and idolaters, and whosoever loveth and maketh a lie. [or perpetuates the lie through the traditions of men, i.e. polygamy]
(New Testament | Revelation 22:14 - 15)

“that tree of life, whose fruit is most precious and most desirable above all other fruits; yea, and it is the greatest of all the gifts of God.” (Book of Mormon | 1 Nephi 15:36)

What is that fruit that gives “life?” It is the “fruit of the Holy Spirit,” the fruit of “divine nature,” the fruit of godliness, the fruit of god’s character diligently sought for, ...all these divine “fruits” come from the “effects of faith” alone and are available to all the children of God no matter what religion or race they belong to... all have access to the “tree of life” within themselves. “God is no respecter of persons.”

Where is that tree? Within us all! Discover it, become one with it and you will see god/God in His majesty and power whether in [life] and experience translation here in mortality or in [physical death] and experience a resurrection later through the same principles of righteousness.

Principles of Translation Summary

1. Immerse thyself into the two great commandments of God, this is the foundation for our body temple, and it will reveal all the attributes of godliness and holiness of character to our soul and in gratitude, I will offer a broken heart and a contrite spirit to god/God.
2. Repent! “Come unto Christ.” Casting out all my demons (All my false Beliefs & all my Carnal Nature) from my body temple and be purified. [Read Lectures on Faith 1-7 again, again and again!!!]
3. Turn over the Money changers in my body temple; these are the Idols of formalism and once gone, my soul will become free and sanctified.

Our foundation is what we stand on every moment of every day. What is your foundation? Is it “Christ,” the “tree of life” and the promises of god/God through faith alone via translation here in mortality? Or “death,” the “tree of knowledge of good and evil” and eventually the promises of a resurrection, the choice is ours.
