

Marv Furniture Mind: MANUFACTURE & EXPORTER OF HOME AND OFFICE FURNITURE

Year 2022 is going to be interesting for the furniture industry. Consumer preference and needs have changed drastically over the last years, and while they will always need furniture, the way they shop for it, 'll present new challenges for the industry. Furniture Manufactures and the Brands will need to adapt to this change in preference and needs of the consumers, which is fueled by the development of some of the emerging trends, if they wish to remain competitive. They must embrace new trends, let go of faltering fads and take advantage of the latest technologies to capitalize on a growing digital marketplace.

Marv Furniture Mind is a specialist in home and office furniture manufacturing. Since its initial days, its mission has always been to come up with the latest designs, offer its clients the highest quality products, and at the same time offer competitive prices. To do so, the company has dedicated teams that keep close eye on the emerging trends, work closely with different furniture brands, architects, designers, developers, and industry professionals. Marv also offer a custom-made service to meet any specific project requests that client might have.

"At Marv Furniture Mind, we're proud to be innovator of the highest standard, while using cutting-edge technologies. At the same time, we take great pride in design and hand-craftsmanship of our products. Through meticulous and reliable work, our company has become known as a pinnacle furniture manufacturer and exporter in India and overseas", stated Mr. R.B.Singh, Director, Marv Furniture Mind, who has been in the industry for more than 25 years and carries abundance of knowledge about the furniture trade. He is an alumni from Forest Research Institute, Dehradun and has work with many prestigious organizations. He has been on board of many prestigious government and private organizations such as Forest Innovation Consulting Government of British Columbia, Li & Fung, Indian Inc. and William e Connor to name a few. He is working relentlessly to support and promote the "Make In India" initiative take by Indian Govt, in domestic and international Market.

Known for its Range of Furniture

Marv Furniture Mind is known for its upholstered and solid wood products, which has always been their strength, and so far, they've been successfully meeting the client's expectations in India and overseas.

They offer a wide range of fabric, leather, PU and leatherette for upholstered products. These can mainly be categorized in sofa, ottoman & pouffe, upholstered beds, accent & wing chairs, loveseat, chaise lounge, and more.

Along with this, the Marv Furniture Mind collection in solid wood offers a full range of furniture using the highest quality sheesham, mango, and acacia wood and rich imported wood. They broadly categorize it in bed, solid wood sofa, chair, table, wardrobe, console, bar, bookshelves, and more. While making solid wood furniture, sourcing the right material is not enough; it requires correct processing and Marv's long experience in the industry and wood knowledge has helped them greatly meet clients' expectations.

R.B.Singh
Director,

The company has developed a multi-level quality check process to ensure the highest quality. It begins from receiving the raw material in the stores till dispatching the finished product.

Marv Furniture Mind has always targeted to deliver the highest quality products at a very competitive price. And, they've been able to achieve the same, mostly because of the experience, product knowledge, and sourcing that they have developed over the period of time.

With such exceptional products and well-established sourcing, Marv develops long-lasting client relationships by providing the finest quality products in an environment of trust and respect. And to do so, the company is currently operating from two facilities, one is located in Gurugram and the other in Jodhpur. Both are certified by SEDEX for health, safety, and social responsibility. The company aims to be the benchmark in the furniture industry and be recognized for the integrity of the people, the ethics of their business practices, and the quality of its products. ■
