

Affiliate Disclosure

Last Updated: August 28, 2026

Welcome to EverydayAlonzo!

I believe in being transparent with my readers about how I make money from this website. Some of the links on www.everydayalonzo.com are affiliate links, which means I may earn a commission if you click a link and make a qualifying purchase.

What Does That Mean?

When you click an affiliate link on EverydayAlonzo and make a purchase, I may receive a small commission from the retailer or affiliate partner.

There is no additional cost to you. The price you pay remains the same whether you use my affiliate link or visit the retailer directly.

These commissions help support EverydayAlonzo and allow me to continue creating blog posts, recipes, shopping guides, travel content, home and lifestyle content, and other resources for my readers.

My Affiliate Relationships

EverydayAlonzo may participate in affiliate programs offered by retailers, brands, affiliate networks, and other companies.

These relationships may include, but are not limited to, programs that compensate me when readers purchase products through links on my website.

Affiliate programs and relationships may change over time, and this disclosure will be updated as needed.

My Recommendations

I only share products, services, and recommendations that I genuinely believe may be useful or interesting to my audience.

An affiliate relationship does not mean that I receive payment for a positive review or that I will recommend something I do not personally like or believe is a good fit for my audience.

That said, my opinions are my own, and your experience with a product or service may differ from mine.

I encourage you to do your own research and consider your individual needs before making a purchase.

Sponsored Content

Affiliate relationships are separate from sponsored content and paid partnerships.

From time to time, EverydayAlonzo may also work directly with brands and receive compensation, products, services, travel, or other consideration in exchange for creating content.

When content is sponsored or otherwise involves a material connection with a brand, I will clearly disclose that relationship in the applicable content.

Clear and Conspicuous Disclosures

When a blog post, article, shopping guide, or other content contains affiliate links, I may include an affiliate disclosure near the beginning of the content, near relevant links, or in another location where it is reasonably noticeable to readers.

A disclosure may say:

Affiliate Disclosure: This post contains affiliate links. If you purchase something through one of my links, I may earn a small commission at no additional cost to you.

The presence of an affiliate link does not increase the price you pay.

Third-Party Retailers

When you click an affiliate link, you may be redirected to a third-party retailer or website.

Any purchase you make through a third-party website is subject to that company's own terms, conditions, privacy policy, shipping policies, return policies, and other applicable policies.

EverydayAlonzo is not responsible for transactions, products, services, shipping, returns, customer service, or other interactions with third-party retailers.

Amazon Associates

If applicable, EverydayAlonzo participates in the Amazon Services LLC Associates Program, an affiliate advertising program designed to provide a means for websites to earn advertising fees by advertising and linking to Amazon.com and affiliated websites.

Required Amazon disclosure:

As an Amazon Associate I earn from qualifying purchases.
