

ROMANCE IN THE MOVIES

Gone With The Wind 1939

Love and romance are a sure-bets to warm the hearts of any audience. Those movies provided us with love triangles, love/hate relationships, and re-kindled love. Many love stories were so great that they were re-made into sequels; “Showboat” was made twice 15 years apart (1936 & 1951). “A Love Affair” (1939) was remade into “An Affair to Remember” (1957) and many more. Audiences are delighted not just to see but to hear and recall the romantic music of those movies that Bob Herman will present.
