President's Message

Welcome to 2026!

Flamingo Gardens Orchid Society

Celebrating a new year of learning, growing, and blooming together.

2025 was a wonderful year for FGOS. We opened the year with Orchids of Ecuador, moved on to Dendrobiums, Encyclias, Rio Negro Orchid Adventures, Pests and Diseases, to Mounting Orchids, Coryanthes, Guaranthe aurantiaca, then on to Developing an Orchid Collection, and to the Giant World of Miniature Orchids. In between our regular monthly meetings, we had a successful Orchid Show in April, a Potting Workshop in June and a VERY Successful Auction in August enabling us to meet our pledge to Flamingo Gardens toward the development of a new Welcome Center.

In September we visited two of our FGOS Members' Orchid Gardens, and in November went to three more. It was fun and exciting to visit fellow hobbyist's gardens to see their setup and learn more about their orchid growing area. In November, we helped to support the animals at Flamingo Gardens by participating in the Walk in the Wild and reaching our donation goal and more..

In December we celebrated the Holidays together at our annual member's party. We recognized all of our volunteers who step up throughout the year to help to plan and execute our meetings, programs and events and those who helped to plan and coordinate all that goes into a beautifully executed celebration party. Our volunteers give their time and support throughout the year and this year they had the opportunity to select their gift of an orchid first.

We awarded Tom Nordman for having the most Ribbons won in 2025 for Member's Choice!

We recognized those who rose to the challenge of creating a tabletop display for the first time at our annual Orchid Show with FGOS Certificates of Appreciation: Annette Scardina, Wendy Gonzalez, David Sweeten & Traci Slusher, Lucy Matos-Lodato & Melissa Dolton, and Jessica Pajares!

We awarded two of our outstanding FGOS members with the American Orchid Society Certificate of Appreciation for their service and commitment to Flamingo Gardens Orchid Society - Thad Bielecki and Frank Tastingier.

And lastly, Lucy Matos-Lodato was recognized for her Service, Passion and Dedication to Flamingo Gardens Orchid Society with a crystal award.

As we step into a new year together, may our orchids thrive, our curiosity grows, and our community continue to flourish. Let's make the most of 2026!

Happy New Year to All!
