JUNIOR CAMP CONDUCT CODE

- Campers found guilty of theft or malicious damage to any articles by confession or evidence shall forfeit all rights and must leave the grounds within 12 hours. The responsible party must make restitution for any damages.
- No registered camper shall leave the grounds for the duration of the camp except in an emergency.
- Mobile phones or other devices capable of playing or recording media may only be used at designated times and only with approval of Supervisory Staff. Any use of these devices without approval or in an inappropriate manner will result in disciplinary action including, but not limited to, confiscation of the device and possible expulsion from camp.
  - Weapons, smoke bombs, fireworks, non-prescribed medications and/or drugs, alcohol, tobacco or contraband of any kind shall not be permitted at any time.

CAMPER'S PLEDGE

I PLEDGE to respect and obey my camp staff and workers at all times.

I PLEDGE to not have any physical contact of any kind with the opposite sex.

I PLEDGE to honor and cooperate with camp personnel relative to any disciplinary action.

I PLEDGE to respect all camp property and to be responsible for any damage due to my negligence or misconduct. I PLEDGE to stay in the area assigned by dormitory supervisors.

I PLEDGE to attend all functions.

A note to non-camping visitors:

- We welcome visitors to any service they would like to attend even if they aren't camper's joining us full time for the duration of camp. However, meals have not been prepared for you. However, you may join us but any person joining us for a meal the cost is $15 per meal. This is to cover your food cost.
- We ask all non-camping visitors to vacate the camp site when you are not there for a service. We want to provide the best and most advantageous atmosphere possible for those attending camp. And this is best suited free of distractions. We ask that if you are joining us for a morning service that you please leave the site before afternoon activities and if for evening service as soon as the service has concluded. This is for the benefit of our campers.
Thank you!

The camp dress code and camp conduct code is broad sweeping to allow for participation by any child that is seeking a relationship with Jesus Christ. If there are other dress codes and standards set by your Pastor, Youth Pastor, or other such spiritual authorities that are more distinct, we expect that those be followed.
