

RVFOA ANNUAL AWARDS

BOBBY JONES AWARD – PROMISING NEW OFFICIAL

This award is presented annually to the most promising young official of the association. This official shall have less than three years of varsity experience. This award is presented to the official who has demonstrated a willingness to learn, is dedicated to work all levels of competition, and adheres to the specific mechanics and instruction of the association. This official possesses the emotional, mental and physical characteristics necessary to mature into an outstanding official. This official is seen as one who will steadily improve and advance within the association.

PAUL OLDT AWARD –OFFICIATING GROWTH

This award is presented annually to the official who exhibits the desire to continuously improve his skills as an official. This award is typically given to an official who has more than three years of experience. This official has shown an increased knowledge of the rules, and practices good mechanics and positioning on the field. The recipient applies good common sense in making calls and judgments and is regarded as one of the better officials in the association. This official continuously exhibits a great willingness and desire to continue to grow his officiating skills and become even a better official.

MARTY KRONANDER AWARD – MOST OUTSTANDING OFFICIAL

This award is presented annually to the official who exemplifies the characteristics of a true professional both on and off the field. This official displays proper conduct at all times, and commands the respect of fellow officials, coaches, players and school administrators. The most outstanding official exercises good judgment, practices sound mechanics, and has a thorough understanding and consistent application of the rules. This official is a leader within the association, setting an example of honesty and integrity. Unconcerned with personal goals and achievements, the most outstanding official is completely dedicated to the betterment of the game.

SPORTSMANSHIP AWARD

The Sportsmanship trophy is awarded annually to the school served by RVFOA which best reflects the fundamentals of good sportsmanship and fair play. This school possesses a good knowledge of the rules, exhibits good behavior, acknowledges superior effort by teammates and opponents, and respects game officials. The members of this program take pride in their competitive spirit, but also set the example of good sportsmanship. This school is gracious in victory, and humble in defeat. The coaches, players and administrators recognize discipline teaches basic social values and is necessary for success both on and off the football field.