

THE LAVA DOME sports complex

✉ info@thelavadome.com

IN-KIND GIFT ACCEPTANCE POLICY

The Lava Dome Sports Complex, a 501(c)(3) public nonprofit organization

The Lava Dome is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization, and we are grateful for the generous donations of in-kind gifts. We are committed to being responsible stewards of any gifts received, and we want to ensure that any donations made to our organization are beneficial and appropriate to our mission.

In-kind donations are defined as non-cash donations of goods or services. Examples of in-kind donations include items such as office supplies, equipment, furniture, food, and other tangible items. All in-kind gifts must be approved by the Executive Director before they can be accepted.

The following criteria will be used to determine whether or not an in-kind gift is appropriate and beneficial:

- The gift must be consistent with The Lava Dome's mission and purposes.
- The gift must be in good condition and free from any liens or encumbrances.
- The gift must have clear title or ownership.
- The gift must be accompanied by any necessary releases, authorizations, or consents required for its use.
- The gift must not carry any conditions or restrictions that would limit The Lava Dome's use or disposition of the gift.
- The gift must not pose any legal, financial, or reputational risks to The Lava Dome.

If you are interested in making an in-kind gift to The Lava Dome, please contact our Executive Director to discuss the details of your donation. We are grateful for any and all donations that help further our mission. Thank you for considering The Lava Dome!