

Senior OT Control Systems (C&I) Engineer

Hybrid/Scotland (Exceptional Candidates from other UK Mainland locations also considered)

In this role you will support larger projects or lead smaller project, project teams and provide consultancy for operators in the Oil, Gas, and utilities sectors. You will have significant previous professional control systems and instrumentation experience. This role involves full circle ownership and design of turn-key modifications and discipline support for major project teams.

This is a Remote Hybrid position; as required when not working from home you will have flexibility to work throughout the UK, visiting our offices and client offices/sites as required. Regulated process Industry experience is desirable however not essential for this position.

Essential Skills

- Control Systems and Instrumentation
- Industrial Communications and Protocols
- Interpersonal and Communication Skills
- Full UK Driving License
- Oil, Gas and or Utilities Background
- Understanding/Experience of and/or Safety Instrumented Systems accreditations (e.g. TUV)
- Understanding/Experience of and/or OT Cyber Security accreditations (e.g. 62443)
- Understanding/Experience of DSEAR and/or ATEX accreditations (e.g. EX12)
- Understanding/Experience of relevant Standards and Specifications
- Control Systems and/or Instrumentation design experience
- Understanding/Experience of F&G Systems
- Understanding/Experience of Human Factors and Alarm management requirements
- Membership or Chartership with relevant engineering body
- Understanding/Experience of Management of Change
- Supervisory Experience
- Experience of Various PLC and DCS Systems e.g.
 - Siemens
 - Honeywell
 - Inductive Automation

Desirable

- EX12, 62443, ATEX (EX12) or equivalent certifications
- Understanding/Experience of Turbo machinery controls
- Operations Experience
- Commissioning Experience
- Trade/Technician Background

Key Responsibilities

- Design and implement Hardware and Software solutions in accordance with company and industry policies and procedures.

- Client facing role with some project management and stakeholder engagement
- Produce Clear Engineering Drawings, Specifications and Documentation
- Provide Design assurance for Major Projects
- Lead design reviews, site visits and surveys
- Lead small teams
- Stakeholder Management for technical issues/requirements
- Produce clear reporting and technical documentation

Experience/Education

- A master's level Degree qualification in electrical, electronics, instrumentation, controls or similar. Applicants without a master's Level degree who can demonstrate suitable qualifications, and experience will also be considered.

Other

- Right to work in UK
- Ability to complete relevant background checks

If of interest, please contact recruitment@eskcontrol.com with covering email and CV.