

What is a Dobutamine Stress Echocardiogram?

Dobutamine Stress Echocardiograms are for those patients who cannot walk or have limited exercise capacities. A nurse infuses the medication into the patient and uses ECG monitoring, along with ultrasound, to see changes in the wall motion of the heart.

(480) 641-5400
cvam.com