

Flipping the Script on Disciple Making – Together

Purpose

We commit to journey together as a discipleFLIP group to pursue relational discipleship that reflects the mission of Jesus Christ. This group will not be program-driven but people-centered, as we seek to Find, Listen, Invest, and Persist with one another for the glory of God and the growth of His kingdom.

Our Commitments

1. Find (Intentional Pursuit)

- I will actively and prayerfully seek out others in this group and in my life who God is calling me to disciple.
- I will remain open to God leading me to someone new and not limit my obedience to convenience.

2. Listen (Attentive Presence)

- I will practice listening without judgment, interruption, or assumption.
- I will give others the gift of my attention, presence, and empathy.

3. Invest (Purposeful Encouragement)

- I will share Scripture, truth, time, and encouragement in ways that build spiritual growth.
- I will make relational discipleship a priority in my weekly schedule.

4. Persist (Faithful Obedience)

- I will stay committed to this group and the people God has placed in my path.
- I will not give up on someone just because growth is slow or inconvenient.
- I will bring truth in love and stand with my group in prayer and accountability.

Group Rhythm & Expectations

Gathering

We agree to meet consistently as a group:

- Frequency: ____ (weekly / biweekly / monthly)
- Day and Time: ____
- Location: ____ or ____ (virtual option)

Participation

- I will be honest, respectful, and fully present.
- I will protect the confidentiality of what is shared in this group unless someone is in danger or needs help beyond our ability.
- I will support and challenge others to grow spiritually and personally.

Accountability

- I welcome loving accountability for my walk with Jesus and my obedience to the Great Commission (Matthew 28:19–20).
- I understand that growth happens through grace and truth working together.

Covenant Affirmation

By signing this covenant, I commit to the discipleFLIP way of relational disciple-making and to honoring the other members of this group. This is not a contract but a shared commitment rooted in love, humility, and obedience to Christ.
