Sis Hill's favorite song is "His Eye is on the Sparrow." She accepts the purpose that the Lord has placed on her life, and demonstrates those Christian values in her daily walk with Christ and is often reminded of one of the beloved scriptures; "The Lord is my light and my salvation; whom shall I fear? The Lord is the strength of my life; of whom shall I be afraid?" Psalms 27:1.

Sis. Hill is an influence in both her church and the community. Her commitment to serving others is evident through her lifestyle of service to the Lord. She believes that one of our most precious resources is our youth and wants nothing more than to prepare and help position them for success in life. Amongst her accomplishments, she considers supporting her husband in ministry and raising Godly children as her primary purpose. Sis. Hill enjoys serving as a help meet to her husband's vision of ministry and strives to join him in his efforts to please God. As a mother, she passionately believes that the best way to raise successful children is to be an active role model by demonstrating the love of God.

Sis. Hill looks forward to the blessing of following the Lord's instruction to worship, fellowship and serve at the Greater Salem Baptist Church!
