Sara Bragdon, an attorney with Akridge & Balch, spoke to the East-Central Alabama Chapter of Military Officers Association of America about personal affairs planning. Bragdon, an estate specialist, spoke about the different types of estate documents and procedures as well as the importance of executing wills, powers of attorney and medical directives before they are needed. The Military Officers Association of America is a professional association of United States military officers. Its membership is made up of active duty, retired and former commissioned officers and warrant officers from the uniformed services of the United States. The ECAC-MOAA usually meets on the third Tuesday of each month at Saugahatchee Country Club. For more information, go to <http://www.ecacmoaa.com/>. Pictured are Bragdon and ECAC President Capt. Mike Golden, USAF, retired.
