

ELI

Afro House/Afro Tech
DJ + Music Producer

BIO

ELI is a promising glimpse into a new generation of Afro House raising the global frequency one dance floor at a time. The Georgia-born, Denver-based American DJ and producer's infectious afro-forward sound invites you into a higher state of mind as it irresistibly moves the body, opens the heart, and awakens the soul.

His refreshing take on African electronic dance music is a genre-melting blend of global afro, tribal, tech, melodic, latin, indie dance, and progressive influence soulfully blended with ancestral African rhythms. Guided by spirit, ELI's DJ sets truly put the depth and range of Afro House on full display while still pushing the sound beyond its traditional bounds. From his deep, driving grooves to his soulful, melodic storytelling to the infectious, atmospheric energy he cultivates, ELI's sound is more than music—it's something you can feel.
