

The Annual Parochial Church Meeting

In clarification and further to the notice that has been posted on the church notice board, the APCM will be held in church and broadcast via a weblink on Sunday October 25th 2020 at 11.00 am. Details of how to participate will be sent to all on the electoral role.

A service will be held in Church this Sunday, including the APCM. It is an opportunity to return and once again worship God in our church building. It is also an opportunity to celebrate all the improvements that have been carried out within the building during the past few weeks.

Social distancing arrangements will be in place, please bring your own mask as they will be required to be worn. Hand sanitiser is available in the entrance porch.

You are encouraged to attend the APCM in person at the church or to log into the weblink. The weblink will broadcast the meeting from the church and will form part of the act of worship which will commence at 10.00am. You can participate in proceedings on the weblink by logging into
