

AUGIE MAX VARGAS

EMMY-WINNING PRODUCER & SPEAKER

The son of Filipino immigrants, I have been thriving in the TV Production industry for over 20 years with credits on iconic live specials like The Oscars, The Grammys, Super Bowl Halftime Show, Dick Clark's New Year's Rockin' Eve and many more.

I started from the very bottom as an intern while still in community college and worked my way up from Production Assistant all the way to Producer where I earned a coveted Primetime Emmy Award for my work on The Oscars: All Access, the digital version of Hollywood's most star-studded night. I have earned a total of three Primetime Emmy nominations and one Daytime Emmy nomination.

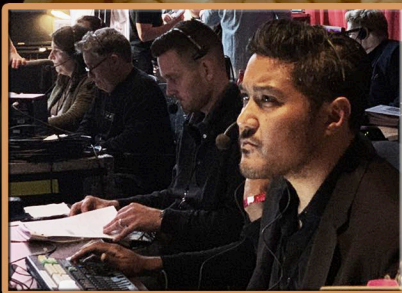

I look forward to sharing my experiences and the lessons I've learned with your Film and Television students looking for answers on how to break into the business and how to achieve longevity and success in the often grueling world of entertainment.
