5. ANNOUNCEMENTS

6. CITIZEN COMMENTS

-Gary Jones suggested small airports in Idaho for advertising the snowblower.

He also discussed the issue with a culvert. "The thaw has started and his barn is leaning. The culvert is bringing silt and water across the street and pushing on the barn. The culvert needs corrected."

Council discussed getting that repaired. Council discussed getting some gravel for the roads.

-Alice Steffensen reported that the headstone has been ordered for the Scholton lot. It can be installed when the snow clears.

Councilor Arnold presented a question about the $50 fee for the dry lot.

Fireboxes will be repaired this summer.

-Wilma-said she had a problem with the snow that has been pushed up against the building. It's leaking into the store and creating an issue. There is also a problem with access to the propane tank. The porch railing is falling apart.

-Phoebe Cassel-Roger's grader windshield is broken out.

Council President: George Butters

City Clerk: Julie Randolph
