Fun Run to Amis Mill Eatery

By Carol Ehm

The weather on Saturday, July 27th, was perfect for a fun run to Amis Mill Eatery. (Deb and Ross Winkler arrived early and checked out the gelato store next door. They gave it a two-thumbs up!) Seven vehicles set out from the Karms Store in Jefferson City for our 5:00 reservation. As we drove down 160, we picked up two more vehicles, waiting for us by the side of the road. We drove the backroads up to Rogersville, enjoying the beauty of the day and the surroundings. Vic Rola did such a great job planning out the route that we arrived just before 5:00. Eighteen of us dined on the outdoor patio that overlooks the picturesque waterfall. Food options ranged from sandwiches to steaks to seafood to Cajun. The homemade desserts sounded delicious but we were all so full from our meals that we had to pass. After our meal, we all got back in our cars and the Fun Run to Amis Mill Eatery headed out. Some went their own way and when we got to the end of Vic's directions (which was our Friday night spot at WalMart), there were only 3 left!

Now to give you some history about Amis Mill. Captain Thomas Amis (pronounced Amy) was appointed Commissary for the Third Regiment, North Carolina Continental Troops on December 22, 1776. He became a target for the British after hiding a band of soldiers at his mill on Drowning Creek, NC. As a result, he packed up his family and belongings, and with the help of the Continental Troops, moved across the Appalachian and settled in Big Creek. He established a mercantile for the Carolina troops who were seeking their land grants. His home and store were surrounded by a large wooden enclosure so tall that only the top of the house was visible. A blacksmith shop, as well as a grist and saw mill, could also be found within the confines. Those passing through could get a good meal, some rest, restock their supplies and meet new friends. The current owners bought the Estate in 2008. It was their dream since they visited in 1988, while on her 5th great grandfather to see that the property is who plans to preserve 18th century.

Thank you to Vic for fun, enjoyable looking forward one!

A Reminder for things to bring to the Cruise-In AT WalMart for Kingswood Home for Children!

Bring whatever is most convenient for you.

Snacks (non-Perishables)

Shampoo, Conditioner, Bath Soap

Paper products

I would like to THANK everyone that have been bringing items to our cruise-in each Friday evening for Kingswood Home for Children. It is a great cause! Thanks, Pat

Letter from the President

Hello Cruzers,

Written August 4th

I can't believe that it is almost time for the "Fill the Truck with Toys" Car show!! It is August 24th, ABOUT ONE WEEK!! Still so much to do!!

This is our strictly non-profit show. All proceeds go to the charities that we support, this one being the toys for underprivileged children. The registration is to bring a new, unwrapped toy to donate. We will also have a couple of donation jars for monetary donations which also go to the children and will be used to buy more toys when items are needed for certain age groups.

We will have a couple of food vendors, a hot dog vendor and the youth group from Grant's Chapel Church selling breakfast items and nachos and a couple of other things. You can also go to the Bush's Cafe to eat if you prefer that.

So let's have fun as well as putting big smiles on the children's faces!!

Awards will be presented as Peoples Choice at the end of the show.

Thanks,

Pat Dukes, President, Mossy Creek Cruzers Car Club

Go to Facebook, Then in search look for: "Tennessee car shows and cruise ins" to get a list of everything going on in the area! Thanks to Jim Kramer and Cale Parrott for starting this page!! And Ed Spangler for keeping it going and working with it.
