LARGE LANGUAGE MODEL STUDY PROMPTS

1. Say What You Want Clearly
Don't be vague. Ask for exactly what you need.
✅ "Explain fractions like I'm 12."
❌ "Tell me about fractions."

2. Give the Backstory
Tell the LLM what you're working on so the answer fits.
✅ "I'm revising GCSE History – can you explain trench warfare?"
❌ "What's trench warfare?"

3. Choose the Format
Decide how you want the info: a list, a summary, a story?
✅ "Give me 5 key facts about the Cold War in bullet points."
❌ "Tell me about the Cold War."

4. Pick the Tone & Who It's For
Say if it should sound casual, serious, or funny.
✅ "Explain photosynthesis in a funny way for Year 8 students."
❌ "What is photosynthesis?"

LARGE LANGUAGE MODELS STUDY PROMPTS

5. Set Limits or Goals
Give a word count or a focus.
✅ "Summarise Macbeth in 100 words focusing on Lady Macbeth."
❌ "Tell me about Macbeth."

6. Ask to Improve It
If you don't like the answer, just ask for better!
✅ "Can you make that easier to understand?"
✅ "Can you add more detail?"

7. Show What You Like
Give an example so it knows what style you want.
✅ "Make a slogan like this: 'Drink smart. Stay sharp.'"

8. Split It Up
Break big tasks into steps.
✅ "Help me revise Macbeth in 3 parts: plot, characters, themes."