

ACCELERATE YOUR CAREER WITH A PERSONAL BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Sabrina A. Wilson | Founder

A practical, interactive career-development program that helps professionals stop going it alone and build the right relationships around them, so they can make clearer decisions, navigate change with confidence, and create momentum toward what's next.

Recently delivered to Women In Manufacturing, CCW, Instant Teams, PatientPoint, Purdue University.

WHY EVENT PLANNERS BOOK IT

- Makes career development immediately actionable by turning "networking" into a clear relationship strategy participants can use right away.
- Connects career development to business impact by helping participants broaden perspective, build stronger cross-functional relationships, and make more confident decisions during growth and transition.
- Sends attendees back to work with a mapped current-state board, identified relationship gaps, and concrete next steps.

IDEAL FOR

Corporate career-development programs, leadership conferences, employee resource groups, emerging and high-potential leader programs, professional associations, universities, and organizations supporting employees through growth or transition.

AVAILABLE FORMATS

- Keynote
- Breakouts
- Workshop

WHY THIS SESSION MATTERS

No one achieves success alone! Yet many professionals still rely on one mentor or wait until they need help, leaving them with limited perspective, access, and support when career paths shift or critical decisions arise.

This program gives participants a practical way to build a small, intentional group of mentors, sponsors, allies, and trusted supporters. Through guided reflection, they map their current board, analyze its strengths and gaps, and identify the relationships they need next. They also learn four practical strategies for expanding their network: be opportunistic, intentional, pragmatic, and reciprocal.

THE RESULT

Professionals leave with greater career ownership, broader perspective, and a practical relationship strategy. For organizations, that means employees who are more intentional about development, better connected across boundaries, and better equipped to navigate change and act with confidence.

AUDIENCE TAKEAWAYS

- 01 Build the right mix of developmental relationships based on their goals and current career needs.
- 02 Map and analyze their current Personal Board of Directors to identify strengths, gaps, overreliance, and missing perspectives.
- 03 Create a personalized action plan with concrete next steps to strengthen key relationships and intentionally expand their network.
