

women
ON THE move

Upcoming Content
2022

For more information or content viewing go to wotmtv.com

Past Featured Profiles

- Kiki Wolfkill: Studio Head, Halo (Gaming & Film)
- Linda Alvarado: Owner MLB Colorado Rockies
- Wanda Durant: Motivational speaker, mother of NBA superstar Kevin Durant
- Emily Perl Kingsley: Special needs advocate and Sesame Street writer
- Melissa Proctor - NBA Atlanta Hawks, Chief Marketing Officer

Black History Month

1st Quarter February 5- February 27

The 2022 Season 6 begins in the first quarter 2022 with our Black History Month edition. Here are a few of past featured profiles:

- Melissa Proctor, as a survivor of Hurricane Andrew and a struggling single parent home, Melissa started a relationship with the NBA as its first ball girl as a teenager. She has since ascended to CMO of the Atlanta Hawks.
- Di'ta Monique, an actress/singer that has shared the stage and screen with the biggest names in entertainment was pronounced dead several times in tragic fire which claimed the lives of her siblings as a child. She reconnects for the first time with firefighter who saved her life twenty years prior on the day of his retirement
- Toi Salter, from nail salon owner to money manager for NBA stars Anthony Davis and Derrick Rose

Magnificent Mothers

2nd Quarter May 7 - May 29

The edition focuses on mothers with amazing stories of triumph as it relates to motherhood, not only with their own children but the community. Past profiles include:

- Emily Perl Kingsley, Emmy Award winning writer for Sesame Street and early advocate for people with disabilities on television
- Julie Loving felt the pain of her daughter's numerous fertility visits that yielded no results. At fifty years of age mom suggested the unthinkable and gave the ultimate sacrifice, as a surrogate for her daughter.
- Tracy Wilson Mourning, Co-founder of at risk school, founder of a girls mentoring program, and wife of NBA legend Alonzo Mourning

Hispanic Excellence

3rd Quarter Sept 3 - Sept 25

The edition is our Hispanic Heritage Edition. Profiles featured are:

- Anita Padilla Fitzgerald, with only a high school diploma Anita started as a mortgage company clerk. Ultimately becoming President of a major financial institution before starting her own company. Anita is a leader in the mortgage loan business and has been instrumental in the creation of several laws benefitting low income buyers.
- Lizette Salas, her father worked as a maintenance man at a private golf course and dreamed of his daughter playing the sport. Unable to buy her golf clubs he made clubs for her from discarded pieces. Lizette had to earn her way onto the tour by playing in qualifying tournaments. Today Lizette has reached the heights of the LPGA and is ranked #16 in the world.

Year In Review

4th Quarter December 3 - January 1

A compilation of a few of the women featured during the calendar year and highlight segments on women making a tremendous impact during the year. Names to be announced in November.

Women Empowerment

special invite networking

Online discussions

What To Expect

Empowerment

Leadership

Performance

women
ON THE move

THANK YOU

Contact your rep for more details

