SCHOOL - PARENT COMPACT

KG - 3RD GRADE

TITLE-1 PART A
TARGETED-ASSISTANCE

What is a School - Parent Compact?

Families and schools need to collaborate to help students succeed academically. In the sections below, we'll discuss the roles and responsibilities that we, as partners, will take on to support the student's success in school and in life.

COLLABORATION

The Lone Star staff work with students and families to develop a school-parent compact. Teachers suggest home learning strategies and activities, and parents/guardians provide feedback through surveys or other communication methods. Annual parent meetings and conferences allow all parties to review and update the compact. Suggestions can also be contributed via email, contacting the school, or discussing during meetings.

As a Teacher & School,

Have high expectations for staff, students, and parents

Maintain an environment conducive to instruction and learning

Continuum of monitoring of student's progress and work to ensure success

Communicate with parents regularly

Check student's "school to home" folders daily

Parents receive the following guide pamphlets:

"25 Ways Parents Can Read With Children"

Top Five Study Skills Every Student Needs

Ways Busy Families Can Help Children Succeed in School

What Parents Can Do at Home to Help Students With Reading

As a Student,

Attend school and be on time

Do my best to independently complete assignments

Ask for help when I need it

Study and review for upcoming tests

Respect and cooperate with other students and adults

Do my best to read at least 15 minutes a day at home

Follow the rules of student conduct

Use reading and study strategies learned at school

Complete and turn in assignments and homework on time
