ARTS ADVOCATING, continued

Cultural Arts and Enrichment Chair for Jamestown Public School's Parent and Teacher Association

September 2004 - June 2010

Creating a diverse and vibrant series of assemblies and in-class arts and cultural experiences for the Jamestown Public Lower and Middle Schools (about 500 students). Tasks included researching and booking various educational organizations from around the state of RI, and designing specific class projects corresponding to meaning and message of performances, and writing grants through the Newport County Foundation to augment costs. Highlights include music with classical 20 piece classical orchestra "Musical Dolci," American Master Duke Ellington with the Rhode Island Philharmonic, Songs from the Prairie with Skip Gorman, story telling with Valerie Tutson and Len Cabral, Native American storytelling, dance and music with the Tomaquag Museum, and wildlife education with "Mission: Wolf" featuring 3 wolves from a 30 wolf preserve in Colorado.

FILM

Dreaming of Sugarplums — Documentary Film Producer

"Dreaming of Sugarplums" documents the artistic experiences of students who dance annually with the professional ballet dancers of the Island Moving Company in "The Nutcracker Ballet in Newport's Rosecliff Mansion." Without a stage to draw the line between reality and fantasy, young dancers return like a tribe to perform in this site-specific production throughout a Neo-Rococco Gilded Age mansion, in pursuit of their artistic souls. Responsibilities included securing a $15,000 grant from the William Froleich Foundation, and a matching grant from a private funder, securing filmmaker, press and social media relations, researching the history of the house and ballet, acting intermediary between/ filmmaker and dance company, organizing interviews with children, parents, dancers, company ED and artistic director, professional dancers, Rosecliff personal and the Newport Preservation Society.
