LIDA GADACZ OPERATIONS

Lida brings events to life with a rare mix of creativity, precision, and heart. With over 20 years of experience from grand Opera Balls to laid-back tequila tastings, she knows how to make every detail count. Her events are stylish, thoughtful, and full of personality. Lida's calm confidence keeps budgets in check and timelines running smoothly, so clients can actually enjoy the process.

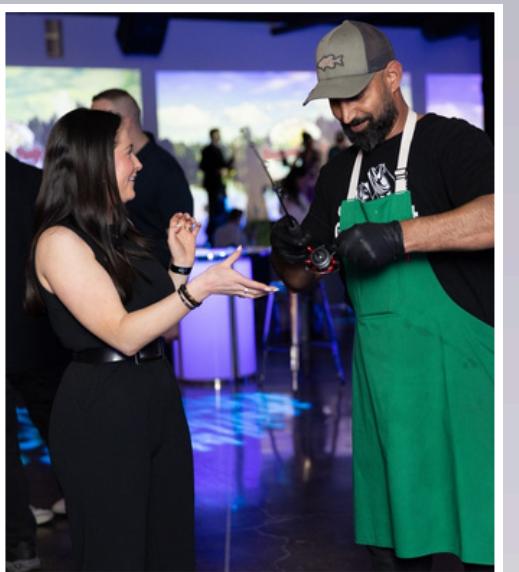

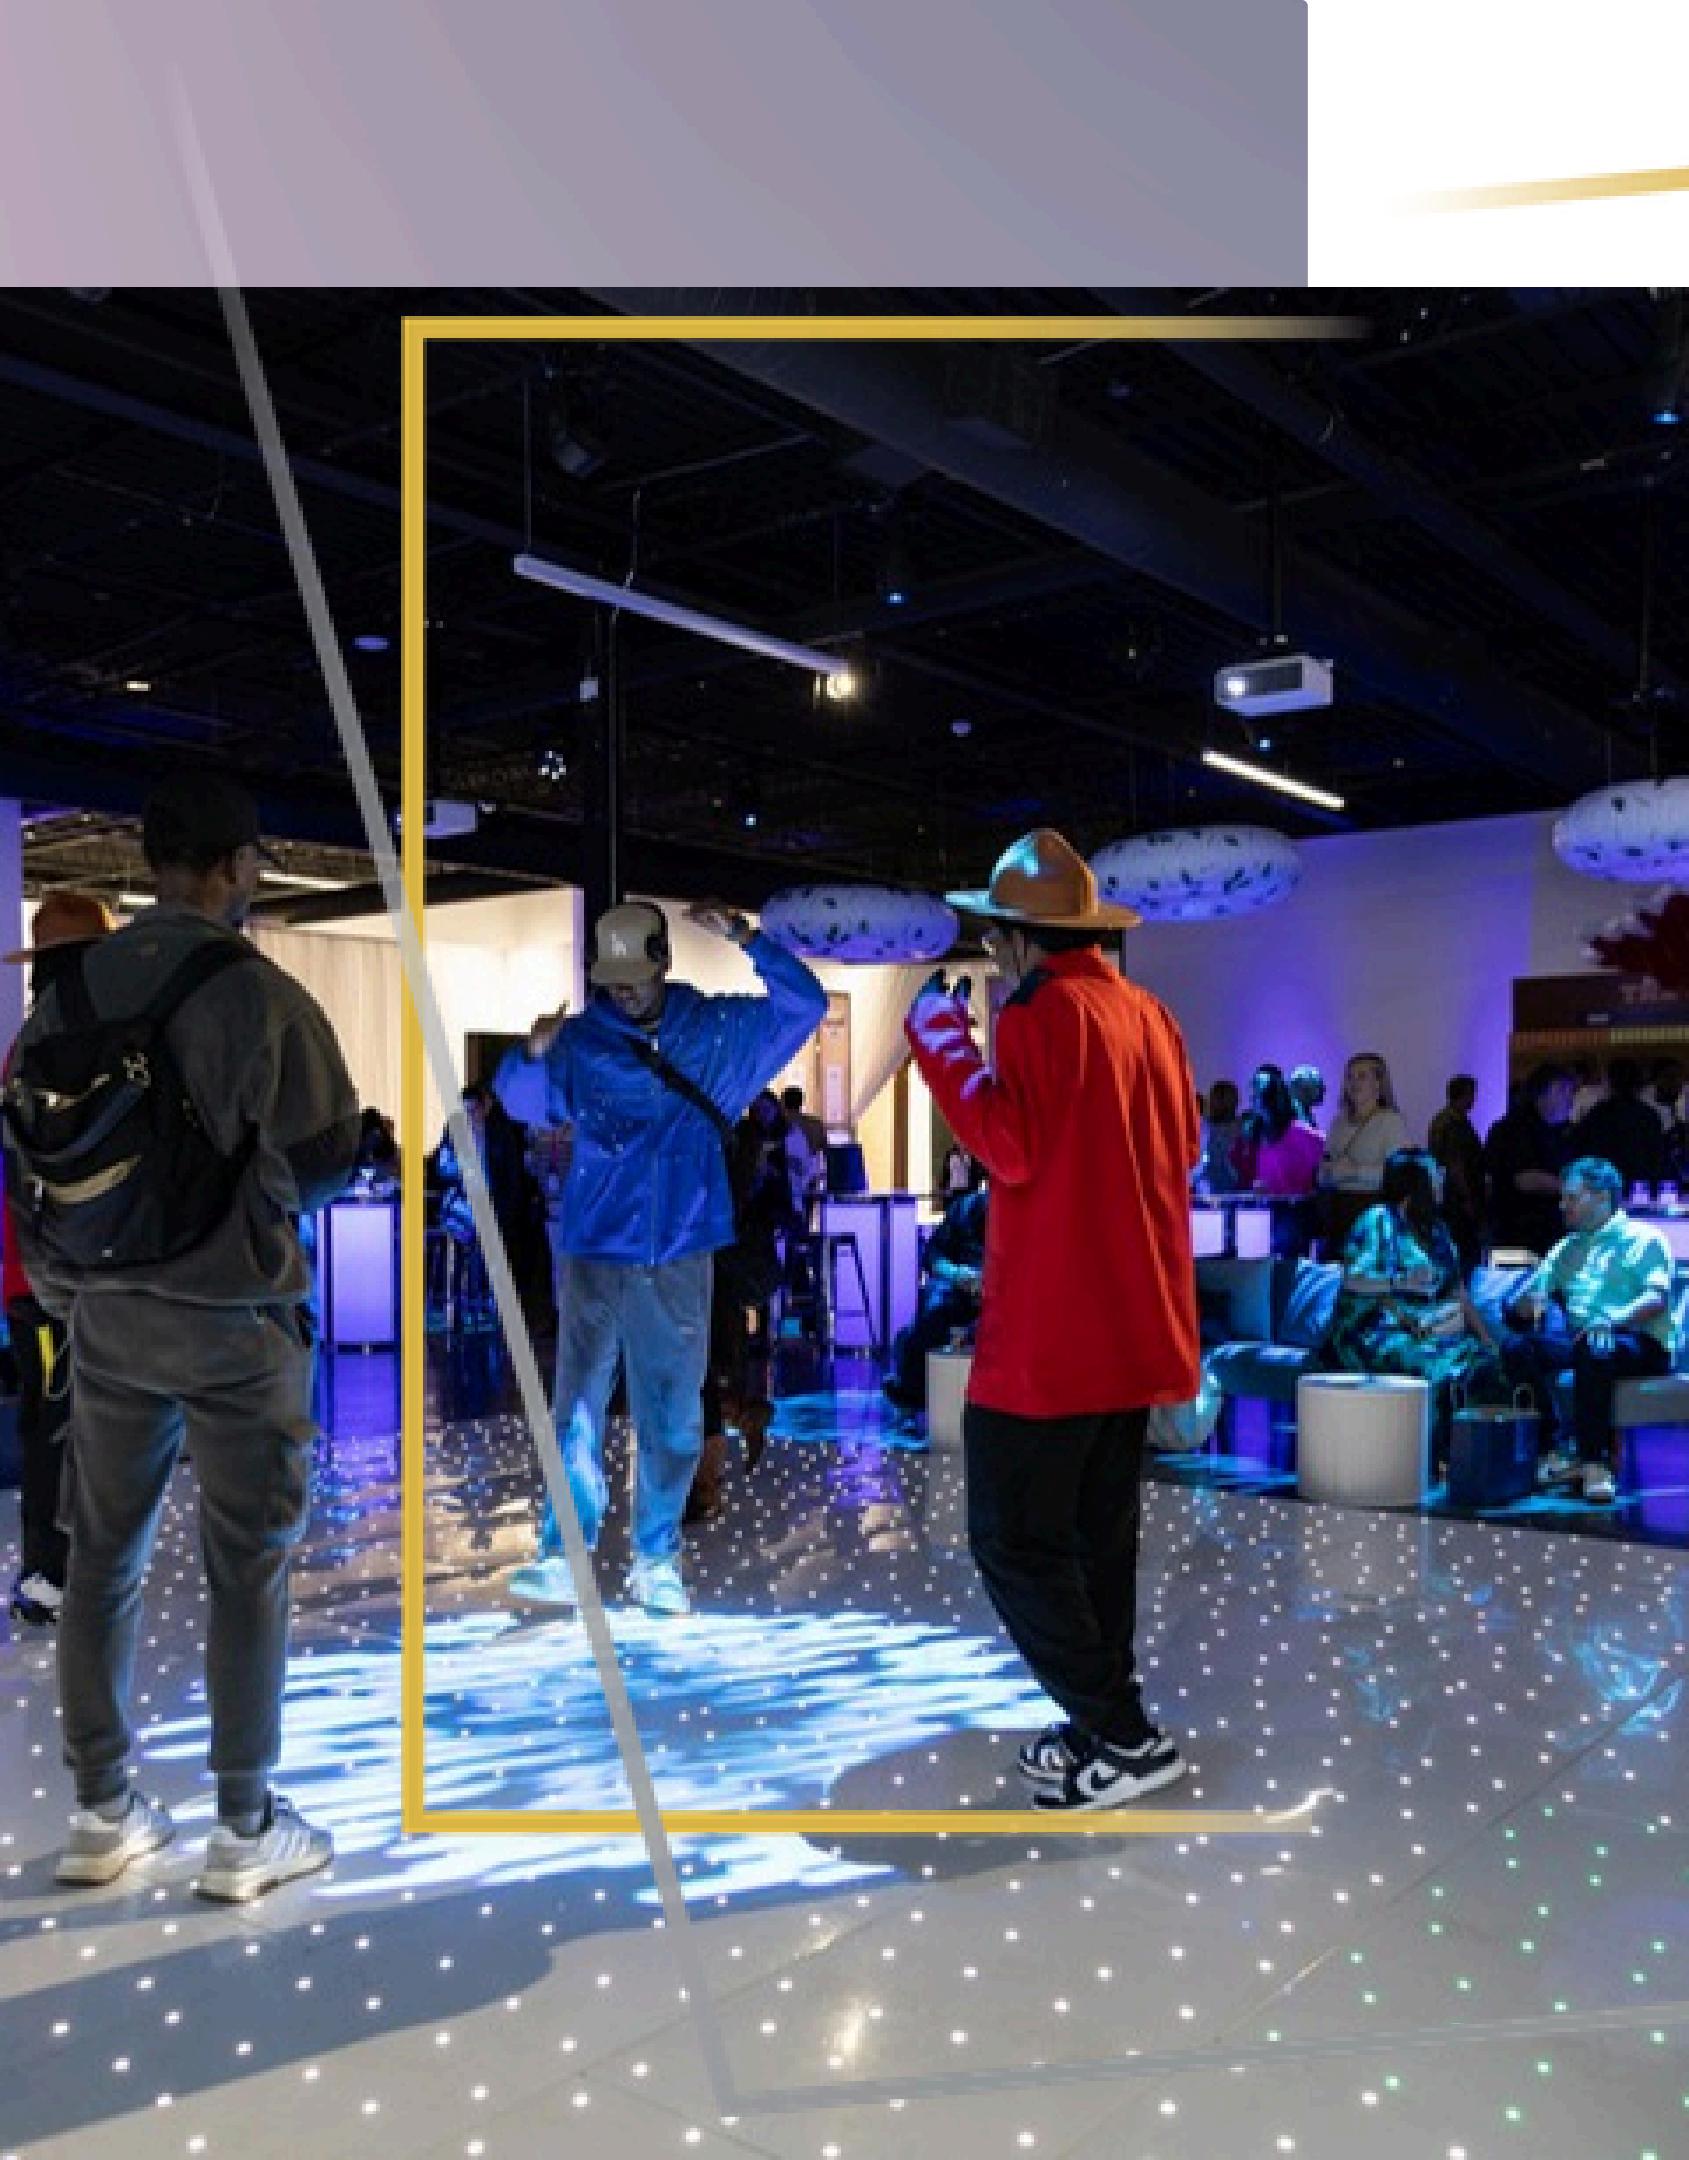

JESSICA ROTENBERG VISIONARY

With a background in architecture and urban design, she brings a creative eye and big-picture thinking to every event. Jessica's strength lies in her ability to transform spaces and tell stories, whether it's a corporate launch or an intimate celebration. She's detail-obsessed, endlessly resourceful, and passionate about creating events that feel intentional, immersive, and uniquely yours. With Jessica, no idea is too bold and no moment is overlooked.

ABOUT US

At Unframed Events, we bring your vision to life boldly and beautifully. From high impact corporate events to intimate personal celebrations, our team specializes in crafting immersive, memorable experiences that leave a lasting impression. With creativity at our core and precision in every detail, we don't just plan events we design moments.

UNFRAMED EVENTS

We start by truly understanding you, your organization, and your goals. This allows us to craft events that are innovative, meticulously planned, and perfectly aligned with your needs, budget, and vision. Our passion for creativity and detail ensures that every event we design is not only flawless but also a true reflection of your unique style.

Your special moments become extraordinary memories.

From conceptualization to execution, our experienced and imaginative consultants handle every aspect of the planning process with professionalism and care.

By relieving you of the stress and complexity of event production, we allow you to fully enjoy the occasion while we bring your dream event to life.
