~Reflecting on One Year of Pastoral Leadership~

One year ago, I said “yes” to the call—and what a journey it has been.

I am humbled and honored to serve as the Pastor of Jesus Saves Pentecostal Church of the Apostolic Faith. This past year has been filled with moments that have stretched me, blessed me, and continually reminded me of God’s faithfulness. From the altar to the pulpit, I have witnessed firsthand that God is not just here to be somewhere... He’s here to meet every need.

In 12 months, we’ve baptized new believers, launched ministries, strengthened families, taught the Word, and grown together in faith. We’ve cried together, prayed together, and praised together. And through it all, God’s hand has been guiding us.

I want to thank each of you for your prayers, your support, your patience, and your love. You have embraced me as your shepherd, and I do not take that lightly. Your encouragement fuels my commitment to serve you with integrity, compassion, and conviction.

But this is just the beginning.

I believe greater glory is ahead. I believe in the healing, delivering, restoring, and saving power of Jesus Christ—and I believe this house shall be a beacon of that power for our city, region, and beyond.

To every member, every visitor, every friend: thank you for walking this journey with me. I pray that as we continue, the Lord will deepen our unity, expand our vision, and pour out His Spirit in unprecedented ways.

Here’s to one year of grace—and to the many victories still to come.

With love and gratitude,
Pastor Robin Grice

Reflections & Reminders

A Closing Word from the Heart of JSPC

As this month's Apostolic Herald comes to a close, may you carry these truths into your daily walk:

This Month's Reflection Question:

"What is one way I've seen God's hand at work in my life this month?"

Take a moment. Write it down. Share it with someone.

This Month's Memory Verse:

"For I know the thoughts that I think toward you, saith the Lord, thoughts of peace, and not of evil, to give you an expected end."

— Jeremiah 29:11 (KJV)

JSPC Family Prayer:

Lord, as we journey through this month, help us to remain faithful, focused, and full of Your Spirit. May our church be a place of healing, hope, and harvest. In Jesus' name, amen.
