THE ANTHEMS OF THE ELDERS

Seven by Seven playlist #79 – 9 February 2025

We arrived for our February session as arranged – a little later than usual – to find, not unlike the world outside, the lunatics had taken over the asylum. Undeterred, with our lips sealed (see fourth set) we set about setting up for our sets of sevens. Regulars were joined in the pot by a couple of new faces and a few recently recruited soon to be regulars. An early tongue firmly in cheek “dance set” was balanced out by a heavy Led Zeppelin set and a biker themed set – before one of the newbies went from Yello to Magazine covering

Swinging swaying and records playing

Beefheart. Let the eclecticism begin. We were treated to a set which spanned from a surf guitar retelling of a Japanese folk tune to Ethiopian jazz funk, in amongst the smorgasbord that followed – as Part Time Punks eyed up Betty Davis, Serge Gainsborough held us in a Melody Nelson and Augustus Pablo regaled us with his thoughts on strong coffee. Can't wait to hear what delights our March session brings... – Rich

I CAN'T SPEAK FRENCH

Seven by Seven playlist #80 – 9 March 2025

The Sunday fun continued down at Wharf Chambers – with many people congratulating us on reaching our eightieth session. A big turnout once again meant quite a few folk didn't get to play – we hope you weren't too disappointed and enjoyed the mélange of fine tunes on offer anyway. We had an unusually high number of French language records – but enough funky music for those who couldn't understand a word of it... Here's what we heard:

EX LIBRIS

Seven by Seven playlist #81 – 29 March 2025

It was great to finally make it back to the Music Library for a session now that their refurbishment is finished. There was no bad weather stopping us this time – although Leeds at home tested a few folk's priorities! Huge thanks to Lee and the team at the Library for all their help and hospitality. It's a lovely room and we'll look forward to returning there before too long if they'll have us back (we think they will). We had some very enjoyable post-session analysis at Nation of Shopkeepers too. Here's what we heard (shhhh!):

I HEAR YOU SINGING IN THE WIRE

Seven by Seven playlist #82 – 13 April 2025

It always makes for an interesting session when we're scheduled at the same time as the Indignation Meeting gang! Smithy was a bit nervous about how his opening set might go down – but it was great to see all the old punks nodding along to Y Viva Espana as they were queueing for the bar. An air of madness and joy pervaded the rest of the day and many commented on what a fine time they were having. Here's what we heard:

VINYL WHISTLE 45 DAY

Seven by Seven playlist #83 – 4 May 2025

What a fine afternoon we had at The Vinyl Whistle in Headingley on Sunday. Thanks to Neil for inviting us along to the shop to honour worldwide 45 Day (we think we did it justice) and to Loren for looking after us so well. We had great five record sets from everyone – then a bit of extra time for a little go round again. Mick kicked off with a set to celebrate the recent LUFC success and Karl's jazz selection at the end had all our jaws on the floor – a spectacular way to close the session. Here's what we heard:

Cheers!

NUTS IN MAY

Seven by Seven playlist #84 – 11 May 2025

That was our second session this month – and on consecutive Sundays. We've gone nuts in May. The slight punk bias was offset by Graham's set of five Bob Dylan songs in honour of Bob's approaching 84th birthday. Quest certainly wasn't complaining (some others were). A bit of pop, reggae (welcome Dan!), soul, dance and general weirdness also leavened the mix. Here's what we heard:

A rare sighting of Dan from Stroud

Smithy (Number 1 Again!)
