WE DON'T HAVE TO TAKE OUR CLOTHES OFF

Seven by Seven playlist #65 – 14 April 2024

It seemed everybody was a bit thrown by the reorganisation of the space at Wharf Chambers this time! It's a shame we couldn't settle into the usual seating area. There was plenty room behind the decks though – even if there wasn't that much room for dancing once Smithy got going. Hopefully it was just a one-off arrangement due to that electronic thing being on next door (we'll see). Anyhow, we had some great sets as always. Here's what we heard:

The illuminating Jon-G

Vasco

GET YOUR KICKS

Seven by Seven playlist #66 – 26 April 2024

Our last Friday night session at Northlight! It'll be Thursdays from now on – just like when we started out there back in the Inkwel days. We had a right old panic with sound when we were setting up – we couldn't stop the speakers feeding back until Paul stepped in and lent us their mixer to add into the line. Why this very big sledgehammer cracked our particular walnut we are not really sure – but thanks for the help Paul! Great to have Colin along from Record Plant to ply his wares again too. It was another fine night with some lovely records played:

Everything is green and submarine

I'M TOO BROKEN FOR...

Seven by Seven playlist #67 – 12 May 2024

We hope that dodgy deck didn't cause anybody too much grief. Nobody could figure out what the problem was – but our pals at Wharf Chambers assure us they'll sort it out by the next one. Good that the room layout was back to normal though! Very impressive stamina displayed by everybody that had been to the pub beforehand for the Leeds v Norwich 0-0 draw. Apologies to anyone that missed out because we drew out all the names at the start. We thought we'd try something different. This is what we all played (it's time for a new book!):

SHADOW PLAY

Seven by Seven playlist #68 – 30 May 2024

It was a quiet one for the move to our first Thursday evening session at Northlight. Half term frolics, special birthdays, Barry Adamson and Dana Gavanski gigs were perhaps better (or just pre-arranged?) options for some. We were on the verge of packing up for the night when Geraldine and the gang thankfully arrived to get things going. Here's what we heard:

SOIXANTE-NEUF!

Seven by Seven playlist #69 – 9 June 2024

That was another fine and very interesting session at Wharf Chambers. A huge variety of music on offer again as you can see below. Good news that both decks were operating smoothly – it was a dodgy cable last time apparently... We got through a lot of records – 112 in total (although we had "Time Is Tight" twice!). That was an average length of around 3'12" – much shorter than the 3'30" Quest allows in his timing calculations. Anyhow, here they all are:

MIDSOMMAR

Seven by Seven playlist #70 – 20 June 2024

It was nice of the sun to pop its head out finally – just in time for the summer solstice. Add to that the warm welcome that we received at The Vinyl Whistle and it all made for a lovely evening. Thanks to Adam (not Dan?) for looking after us so well. And what a fine place it is – combining the exciting and frankly dangerous possibilities of buying records and drinking beer! Headingley was very busy hosting some key sporting events that evening, with resulting transport challenges – but that didn't deter the brave ones... Here's what we played:

It's a bit like Our Favourite Shop
