WOULD YOU'VE LIKED A PRESENT TOO?

Seven by Seven playlist #72 – 14 July 2024

There was a lot happening on Sunday! We had the last day of Leodis Requiem at Wharf Chambers and some big birthday celebrations too. Thanks on Delia's behalf to everyone that brought the lovely food along – a veritable feast it was. Somehow we managed a truncated Seven by Seven session as well – blowing the whistle early so folk could get off to watch the Euros final if they wanted to (well done Spain). Jon-G then took control in extra time and kept Delia's after-show party going. We're not the only ones with a book apparently. Here's what we crammed in before 7pm:

Delia on the decks

And then...

DELIA'S AFTER-SHOW PARTY (AKA WHAT FOOTBALL?)

After the official end to Seven by Seven there was a hard core "what football?" crew left over. Given it was Delia's birthday do as well I volunteered to run an extra "unofficial" session which started out with a list of 8 names (plus me) who hadn't played – which quickly went down to 5 as some let the football fun get the better of them.

Thanks to Mark, Cathy, Steve H, Christopher and Sophie for playing 5 records (which started as 4 but went up as people dropped out). I appreciate you putting up with my tipsy (drunk) organisation. And to Delia and Nat for partaking of the 2 extra records round as well as the above. A lot of fun was had – not too many pictures but I'll dig out the ones people sent me. Cheers as always to the Seven by Seven crew and Wharf for providing such a fabulous space. – Jon-G

This man also has a book...

BA-DEE-YA DANCING IN SEPTEMBER

Seven by Seven playlist #74 – 8 September 2024

September, September – so good it got played twice. On this autumnal second Sunday we were definitely chasing the clouds away. It was a little quieter than our summer sessions but with a room full of regulars eager to share their selections we managed to get out seventeen sets.

As ever we were treated to a wide range of sets – from disco to ska to country to a Belinda Carlisle set – as well as the usual in-set eclecticism. We were reminded of some of the more obscure nooks and crannies of Bowie and the Stones, and were introduced to artists such as Skylab, Penza Penza and Locksmith – the latter as part of a funk set which got people up on that bit of the floor used for dancing very early doors, in the third set of seven no less. Dancing in September before tea time even. – Rich

IN ME JOY DIVISION OVEN GLOVES

Seven by Seven playlist #75 – 13 October 2024

Thanks to everyone that came along for another fine session at Wharf Chambers. The comfortable turnout level meant that everybody that wanted to play (and stuck around) got a turn. The record choices suggest that Bowie's usual end-of-year position as the most played artist isn't under any threat! The Fall are still featuring strongly though. Will it be piccalilli shin pads for Quest next year we wonder? Here's what we heard:

Alasdair and Rich W rock out!

THREE MINUTE HEROES

Seven by Seven playlist #76 – 10 November 2024

There were several murmurings that this might have been our best session ever. That's a hell of a claim – but it certainly was quite a corker. We managed twenty sets of top quality sounds with a few extras thrown in at the end. Alasdair did some sums halfway through and calculated we were averaging three minutes per tune – so that allowed plenty of time for the tail-enders to have five records each. Here's what everyone played:

Definitely not playing O Superman!

Smithy (The Difficult Opening Set)

1. Erasure – Love To Hate You
2. Mega City Four – Miles Apart
3. Angelic Upstarts – Teenage Warning
4. The Jesus And Mary Chain – April Skies
5. Communards with Sarah Jane Morris – Don't Leave Me This Way
6. Marc Almond featuring Gene Pitney – Something's Gotten Hold Of My Heart
7. The Housemartins – Caravan Of Love

QUITE A YEAR

Seven by Seven playlist #77 – 8 December 2024

And so – we reached the last session of 2024 and we've made it to number 77! Thanks to everyone that has attended over the past year and helped to make it such an enjoyable run. This visit to Wharf Chambers didn't feel quite as bonkers as some previous December sessions – but everyone had a great time by the look of things. We were unfortunately down to only one deck due to needle trouble and not having any spares. We all seemed to cope OK – and it certainly removed the risk of any attempts at fancy mixing...

I wonder what we'll play for you tonight
