BUSTIN' OUT ALL OVER

Seven by Seven playlist #85 – 8 June 2025

Well that was another fine session at Wharf Chambers. Hopefully the venue's new addition of a noise limiter didn't bother anyone too much! We think we set the level just about right. We had the usual vast range of things to listen to – including two early spins of that AWB classic and then two references to replaceable heads. Seventeen sets in total – and happily everyone in the pot got a turn. Here's what we heard:

SEVEN? ELEVEN!

Seven by Seven playlist #87 – 19 July 2025

Great to be back at The Vinyl Whistle for the first of our two Summer sessions there. Thanks to all at the shop for their fine hospitality. Numbers were comfortable enough that everybody got to play seven records – and there was then plenty of time to go round again for four more each. Luxury! A few people popped in to listen and said some very nice things – but that big gang of daft lads doing the Otley Run in tam o'shanter didn't stay long. Record-wise it was the usual glorious gallimaufry. Here's what we heard:

WOBBLE WOBBLE

Seven by Seven playlist #88 – 10 August 2025

It was a bit of a mad scramble to get going – it looked like Wharf Chambers had forgotten we were coming! Thanks to Alex for leaping to the breach to set up the gear for us while still running the sound desk for the gig next door. Despite the panic we were off and running by 3pm – and we had seventeen sets of excellent tunes, with a sprinkling of interesting cover versions to enjoy. Nice to have a couple of new people playing too. This is what we heard:

Seven by Seven playlist #90 – 14 September 2025

Did we get the funk last Sunday? We certainly did. People brought the funk and we got the funk. There was a fair few Fatback Band, the Players were very much in Association and the dance floor was full before anyone's Mam was due to call them in for tea. Aside from sounding our funky horns we got the usual smorgasbord of punk in all its forms, psyche, soul, reggae, ska and garage of the rock variety... even a smattering of hip hop. Many bases (basses?) were touched from A to Z – from Adam and his Ants going on about photocopiers to Zappa bemoaning the output of TV. An afternoon both edifying and funky:

Seven by Seven playlist #91 – 12 October 2025

Once again we enjoyed an immense variety of tunes at another congenial gathering at Wharf Chambers. Well done to the Riff Raff survivors that made it along! And although we are resolutely old school we accept it would have been impossible to decipher those Japanese record covers without employing a bit of new technology. We managed seventeen great sets – then a quick whizz round at the end with one record each. Here's what we heard:
