

The Protest, Year 2199

(A dimly-lit warehouse with large stacks of boxes in various places. A thin ray of sunshine pierces the dirty window from the second floor. In the distance, we hear violent clashes as people SCREAM, GUNFIRE RINGS OUT and police SIRENS blare. Hurried footsteps increase as LISA, JJ and KATE dart inside. All three are in their mid-twenties. Lisa closes the door quietly. JJ and Kate stop and survey the room while catching their breath. Breathing heavily, Lisa inspects her area of the warehouse.)

Malcolm Solomon

The musical score is divided into two systems. The first system includes staves for Lisa, Kate, and JJ, all of whom have whole rests throughout. Below them is a piano accompaniment with a treble and bass clef. The piano part begins with a glissando in the treble and a forte (f) accompaniment in the bass. The second system continues the piano accompaniment with various triplet and sixteenth-note patterns. The vocal staves for Lisa, Kate, and JJ remain empty in the second system.

The piano part is at the bottom, consisting of two staves (treble and bass clef) with a key signature of three flats and a common time signature. The vocal parts are Lisa, Kate, JJ, and Young W, each on a single staff with a treble clef and the same key signature. There are also four piano parts labeled Pl. #1, Pl. #2, Pl. #3, and Pl. #4, each on a single staff with a treble or bass clef and the same key signature. The score is divided into two systems. The first system (measures 1691-1692) shows the vocalists and piano parts with rests. The second system (measures 1693-1696) shows the vocalists and piano parts with notes. The piano part features a complex melody in the right hand with many beamed notes and a simple bass line in the left hand. The vocal parts have rests in the first system and notes in the second system.
