Submitting an Appeal

Complaint Resolution Officer Decisions

10. A decision made by HGRRC's Complaint Resolution Officer may be appealed before HGRRC's relevant Provincial Rowing Association's appeal panel in accordance with the terms of this Appeal Policy.
11. Notwithstanding Sections 8 and 9 or any other provision in this Appeal Policy, appeals against Complaint Resolution Officer decisions are limited to the sanction imposed. If no sanction has been imposed against the Respondent(s), a Complaint Resolution Officer decision may not be appealed.
12. Notwithstanding any other provision in this Appeal Policy, appeals against Complaint Resolution Officer decisions on sanction shall be heard by a single member appeal panel appointed by the Appeal Manager designated by the relevant Provincial Rowing Association and shall be limited to determining whether the sanction imposed was grossly unreasonable and disproportionate based on the facts and circumstances of the case.
13. Notwithstanding any other provision in this Appeal Policy, any appeal against a Complaint Resolution Officer decision shall be based on written submissions only. No new evidence may be provided by any party.
14. Except as otherwise set out above, Sections 1-7 and 37 and following shall apply to appeals against any Complaint Resolution Officer decision.
15. Notwithstanding the aforementioned or any provision that says otherwise in this Appeal Policy, the Appeal Manager may only appoint a single member Appeal Panel and, unless the relevant Provincial Rowing Association agrees otherwise, any fees (for example, the mediator's fees) related to the use of the Dispute Resolution Policy shall be the responsibility of the Parties to the appeal and not the Club or the relevant Provincial Rowing Association.

Provincial Rowing Association's Discipline Panel Decisions

16. A decision made by the relevant Provincial Rowing Association's discipline panel pursuant to the Complaints and Discipline Policy may be appealed before the relevant Provincial Rowing Association's appeal panel in accordance with the terms of this Appeal Policy.

17. The relevant Provincial Rowing Association shall appoint an Appeal Manager and shall follow the process outlined in Sections 22 and following of this Appeal Policy, modified and applied accordingly based on the circumstances.
18. Any decision by the relevant Provincial Rowing Association's appeal panel shall be final and shall not be subject to any further appeal before the SDRCC, unless the original Parties to the appeal seize the Sport Dispute Resolution Centre of Canada (SDRCC) on a fee-for-service basis.

Appealing Other Decisions

19. Any other HGRRC decision relating to the matters this policy applies to, as listed above, may be appealed in accordance with this Appeal Policy.
20. [Row Ontario] The relevant Provincial Rowing Association shall appoint an Appeal Manager and shall follow the process outlined in Sections 26 and following of this Appeal Policy, modified and applied accordingly based on the circumstances.

Dispute Resolution

21. Except for appeals against Complaint Resolution Officer decisions, the Parties may first attempt to resolve the appeal through the relevant Provincial Rowing Association's Dispute Resolution Policy once the notice of the appeal, the fee, and the information required pursuant to the Appeal Policy has been received. Provided that the Parties have not already attempted to resolve the matter under the Dispute Resolution Policy, the appeal panel, once appointed, shall be permitted to act as both mediator and adjudicator to attempt to resolve the matter using alternative dispute resolution (ADR). In such circumstances, the appeal panel shall follow the Dispute Resolution Policy, modified and applied accordingly in the circumstances.

Screening of Appeal

22. Should the appeal not be resolved by using the Dispute Resolution Policy, the relevant Provincial Rowing Association will appoint an independent Appeal Manager (who must not be in a conflict of interest or have any direct relationship with the Parties) who has the following responsibilities:
 - a) To determine if the appeal falls under the scope of this Policy
 - b) To determine if the appeal was submitted in a timely manner
 - c) To decide whether there are sufficient grounds for the appeal
23. If the Appeal Manager denies the appeal on the basis of insufficient grounds, because it was not submitted in a timely manner, or because it did not fall under the scope of this Policy, the Appellant will be notified, in writing, of the reasons for this decision.
24. If the Appeal Manager accepts an appeal because it falls under the scope of this Policy, there are sufficient grounds and it was submitted in a timely manner, the Appeal Manager will notify the Parties of their decision in writing and will follow the steps described hereunder.

Appointment of Appeal Panel

25. If an appeal is accepted, the Appeal Manager will appoint an appeal panel which shall consist of a single member to hear the appeal. However, at the discretion of the Appeal Manager, an appeal panel composed of three members may be appointed to hear the appeal. In this event, the Appeal Manager will appoint one of the panel's members to serve as the chair.

26. When appointing the appeal panel, the Appeal Manager must select individuals who are impartial, free from any real or perceived conflict of interest (and who shall remain so until a final decision has been rendered or the proceedings have otherwise finally terminated), and who do not have any direct relationship with any of the Parties. Although not a strict requirement, the Appeal Manager should attempt to appoint individuals to the appeal panel who have a legal background and who understand the sport of rowing. When justified by the circumstances, the Appeal Manager may appoint individuals to the appeal panel who have specific areas of expertise that would assist in resolving the matter.

Determination of Affected Parties

27. In order to confirm the identification of any Affected Parties, the Appeal Manager will engage HGRRC. The Appeal Manager may determine whether a Party is an Affected Party in their sole discretion.
28. If a decision in the appeal may affect another Party to the extent that the other Party would have recourse to an Appeal in their own right under this Policy, that Party will become a Party to the Appeal in question and will be bound by its outcome.

Procedure for Appeal Hearing

29. The Appeal Manager shall notify the Parties that the appeal will be heard. The Appeal Manager, in collaboration with the appeal panel, shall then decide the format under which the appeal will be heard. This decision is at the sole discretion of the Appeal Manager and may not be appealed.
30. If a Party chooses not to participate in the hearing, the hearing will proceed in any event.
31. The format of the hearing may involve an oral in-person hearing, an oral hearing by telephone or other electronic means, a hearing based on a review of documentary evidence submitted in advance of the hearing, a hearing based on documentary submissions alone, or a combination of these methods. The hearing will be governed by the procedures that the Appeal Manager and the appeal panel deem appropriate in the circumstances, provided that:
 - a) The hearing will be held in a timely manner within a timeline determined by the Appeal Manager,
 - b) The Parties will be given reasonable notice of the day, time and place of an oral in-person hearing or oral hearing by telephone or electronic communications.
 - c) Copies of any written documents which the Parties wish to have the appeal panel consider will be provided to all Parties in advance of the hearing,
 - d) The Parties may be accompanied by a representative, advisor, translator, transcription services, or legal counsel at their own expense
 - e) The appeal panel may request that any other individual participate and give evidence at an oral in-person hearing or oral hearing by telephone or electronic communications.
 - f) The appeal panel may exclude any evidence filed by the Parties that is unduly repetitious or otherwise an abuse of process. The appeal panel shall otherwise apply relevant and applicable evidentiary rules in relation to the admissibility and weight given to any evidence filed by the Parties
 - g) Nothing is admissible in evidence at a hearing that:
 - i. would be inadmissible in a court by reason of any privilege under the law of evidence; or

- ii. is inadmissible by any statute or common law.
- h) Any Affected Party shall be permitted to make submissions and file evidence before the appeal panel. The appeal panel's decision is binding on any Affected Party.
- i) The decision to uphold or reject the appeal will be by a majority vote of the appeal panel members, except in cases where the panel consists of a single member

32. In fulfilling its duties, the appeal panel may obtain independent advice.

Appeal Decision

33. The appeal panel shall issue its decision, in writing and with reasons, within fourteen (14) days after the hearing's conclusion. In making its decision, the appeal panel will have no greater authority than that of the original decision-maker. The appeal panel may decide to:
- a) Reject the appeal and confirm the decision being appealed
 - b) Uphold the appeal, in whole or in part, and refer the matter back to the initial decision-maker for a new decision
 - c) Uphold the appeal, in whole or in part, and vary the decision
 - d) Determine whether costs of the appeal, excluding legal fees and legal disbursements of any Parties, may be assessed against any Party. In assessing costs, the appeal panel will take into account the nature and amount of the costs, the outcome of the appeal, the conduct of the Parties, and the Parties' respective financial resources
34. The appeal panel's written decision, with reasons, will be distributed to all Parties, the Appeal Manager, HGRRC, the relevant Provincial Rowing Association, and RCA. In extraordinary circumstances, the appeal panel may first issue a verbal or summary decision soon after the hearing's conclusion, with the full written decision to be issued thereafter. The decision will be considered a matter of public record unless a Party otherwise makes a request to the appeal panel and the panel orders that the decision, in whole or in part, remain confidential.
35. Subject to Section 36 below, unless the matter involves a Vulnerable Participant, HGRRC and the relevant Provincial Rowing Association shall publish the outcome of the appeal on their website. Publication shall be limited to, where applicable, the provision(s) of any relevant policies that have been violated, the name(s) of the Individual(s) involved, the sanction(s) or order imposed, if any. Additionally, where HGRRC or the relevant Provincial Rowing Association acts as the Complainant under the Complaints and Discipline Policy and any decision issued pursuant to that Policy is appealed, only HGRRC or the relevant Provincial Rowing Association, and not the original Complainant, shall be identified as an involved Individual. Identifying information regarding Minors or Vulnerable Participants will never be published by HGRRC, the relevant Provincial Rowing Association, RCA, or one of Its Members.
36. If the appeal panel dismisses the appeal, the decision may only be published, as provided for above, with the Respondent's consent. If the Respondent does not provide such consent, the decision will be kept confidential by the Parties, the Appeal Manager, HGRRC, the relevant Provincial Rowing Association, RCA and its Members and shall be retained and discarded in accordance with the relevant and applicable privacy legislation. Failure to respect this provision may result in disciplinary action being taken pursuant to this Policy.
37. Other Individuals or organizations, including but not limited to, Members, shall be advised of the outcome of any decisions rendered in accordance with this Appeal Policy.

38. Any decision rendered pursuant to this Appeal Policy shall apply automatically to and must be respected by HGRRC, the relevant Provincial Rowing Association, RCA, and all of its other Members.
39. Records of all decisions will be maintained by HGRRC, the relevant Provincial Rowing Association, RCA, and its other Members in accordance with their respective privacy policies.
40. The appeal panel's decision is final and binding on the Parties, subject to Section 18 above.

Timelines

41. If the circumstances of the appeal are such that adhering to the timelines outlined by this Appeal Policy will not allow a just resolution to the appeal, the Appeal Manager and/or appeal panel may direct that these timelines be revised.

Confidentiality

42. The appeals process is confidential and involves only the Parties, the Appeal Manager, the appeal panel, and any independent advisors to the panel. Once initiated and until a decision is released, none of the Parties will disclose confidential information to any person not involved in the proceedings.
43. Any failure to respect the aforementioned confidentiality requirement may result in disciplinary action being taken against the Individual(s) in accordance with HGRRC's relevant and applicable policies.

Final and Binding

44. No action or legal proceeding will be commenced against HGRRC or the relevant Provincial Rowing Association or any Individuals in respect of a dispute, unless HGRRC or the relevant Provincial Rowing Association has refused or failed to provide or abide by the dispute resolution process and/or appeal process as set out in governing documents.

Privacy

45. The collection, use and disclosure of any personal information pursuant to this Policy is subject to HGRRC's Privacy Policy.
46. HGRRC, the relevant Provincial Rowing Association, or any of their delegates pursuant to this Appeal Policy (i.e., Appeal Manager, appeal panel) shall comply with HGRRC's Privacy Policy in the performance of their services under this Policy.
