Biography

As a full-time musician from Tulsa, OK, Travis Kidd averages roughly 250 shows per year as a solo artist and with his full band. His style can be hard to pin down, incorporating elements of classic and southern rock, country, blues, and folk, proving Kidd to be an eclectic mix as singer/songwriter and acclaimed guitar player.

Anyone who remembers his past two releases, MidAmerica and Anytown USA, knows that his sound is hard to corner. A rocker at heart with distinctive country influences, Kidd incorporates it all into his songs. Touches of classic rock, '80s guitar rock, and traditional country all come together in his songwriting. If anything, Kidd's songs might best be described as sounding like summer in Oklahoma, and the new songs follow suit with 2024 release, East of the Rockies & The Best of...from The Church...
