

Additional Info:

Where will you keep your llamas?

You will need to bring panels to place beside your RV or cabin. At night, secure them in your trailer.

Where will you stay?

In the Pines RV & Cabin Village

<https://www.inthepinesrv.com>

- Full RV hookup sites
- Beautiful Cabins with private bathrooms, kitchenette, and lofts
- Swimming Pool
- Jump Pad
- Fossil Mining
- Pirate Treasure Hunt on hiking trail
- Corn Hole
- Playground
- Dog Park
- Hiking Trail
- Gaga Ball Pit

Interested?

Call or email Vicki for full details, times, locations, and answers to your questions.

Send registration and event payment to:

Vicki Sundberg
5550 Mills Trail SE
Bolivia, NC 28422
homesweethome_3@yahoo.com
(910) 269-1422

Reserve your lodging at:

In the Pines RV & Cabin Village
1600 George II Hwy SE,
Bolivia, NC 28422
hello@inthepinesrv.com
(910) 845-5040

ANNOUNCING THE

2026 LLAMA
RENDEZVOUS AT THE BEACH

EXPERIENCE T.H.E.
MOST UNIQUE FUN WITH YOUR LLAMA

NOVEMBER 13 ~ 15
2026

SIGN UP NOW! SPACES LIMITED

Event Details

Friday: Arrive, check in, set up your campsite. The public has been invited to come see the llamas as we ask for SSLA donations. A Vendor Food Truck will be there.

Saturday:

NLT 7:45 AM, we load up the llamas in as few trailers as possible for the 8:30 NC Ferry departure across the Cape Fear River to Fort Fisher State Park. First, we hike the Marsh Trail, with its salt marsh plants and find the old hangout of the Ft Fisher Hermit. From the Marsh Trail, we work our way back to the beach where we can take a dip in the ocean, play Llama Games, and take about a bazillion pictures.

Without shade, we need to be vigilant of the temperatures and sun exposure (put sun screen, sun glasses, hat, cover up on your packing list).

After enjoying a bag lunch, we return to the ferry for a trip to Old Brunswick Town and Fort Anderson. Upon arrival, we disembark and take a short drive to the Brunswick Town Historic District. This 2,250-acre area includes the ruins of colonial Brunswick Town, Civil War-era Fort Anderson, St. Philip's Church Ruins, and the remains of Russellborough, the home of two colonial governors. The site closes at 5 PM

Back at Into the Pines, you decide which of the hundreds of local restaurants to go eat fresh seafood!

Sunday: Sadly depart but with new fabulous memories.

Registration

Please book your attendance by filling out the form below. Make your RV/Tent/Cabin Reservations separately with In the Pines RV & Cabin Village.

CONTACT FULL NAME (pls use same as on Pines Reservation for cross-reference)

EMAIL:

PHONE NUMBER:

Number of People with you at your site/cabin -----

Number of Llamas/Alpacas with you at your site/cabin -----

$30/adult

$35/non-SSLA adult

$20/Minor ≤ 16

$25 non-SSLA Minor ≤ 16

Send check to Vicki Sundberg

You will be registered upon receipt of your check and verification of your reservation.