The Midwest Grand Slam of Ultrarunning Award

The Midwest Grand Slam of Ultrarunning award is recognition for those who complete four or five of the Midwest's premier 100 mile trail races. The "Slam" consists of officially finishing four events comprised of the Mohican Trail 100 Mile Run, the Kettle Moraine 100 Mile Endurance Run, the Burning River 100 Mile Endurance Run, the Hallucination 100 Mile Run, or the Indiana Trail 100 Mile Run all in the same calendar year. Those who choose to complete all five races will be designated "Super Slammers" for completing all five 100 mile trail races in the same year. 2027 will be the sixteenth year of the Midwest Grand Slam of Ultrarunning award. The award is a beautifully sculpted natural stone trophy with engravings signifying the runner's accomplishment. Midwest Grand Slam of Ultrarunning awards are shipped after the conclusion of the Indiana Trail 100.
