Message from the East

Brothers..

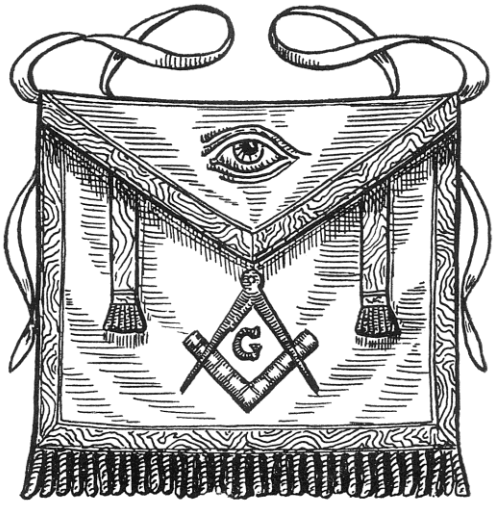

November takes its name from the Latin word ‘novem’, meaning nine, as it was once the ninth month in the original Roman calendar. Although the calendar was later rearranged, moving November to the eleventh position, its original name survived. Perhaps there is a lesson in that about the importance of tradition, even as time and circumstances bring change.

And speaking of tradition and new beginnings, this Monday evening at Acacia Lodge promises to be an important one as our hardworking officers confer a Fellowcraft Degree and prepare to elect the principal officers who will lead us into a new Masonic year. I encourage all our Brethren to come out, share in the fellowship, support our newest Masons, and take part in shaping the year ahead

I look forward to seeing you in Lodge

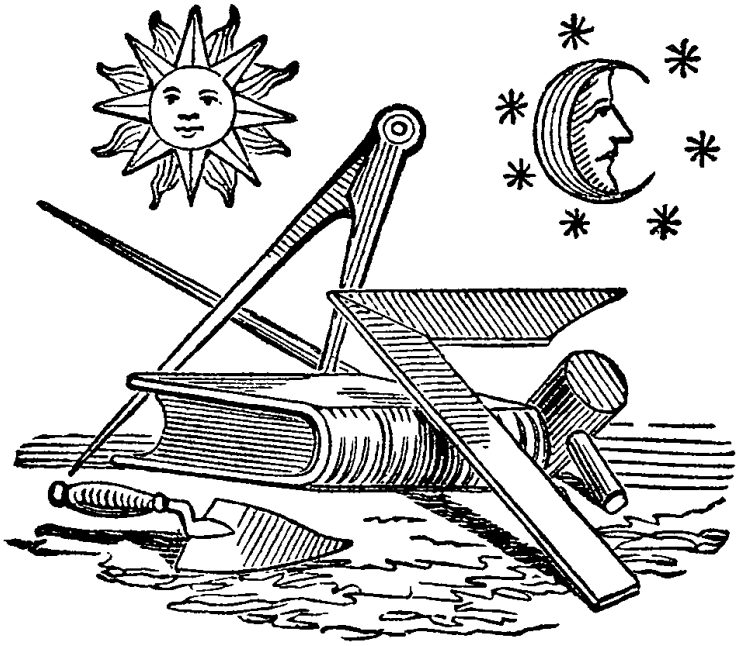

May we ever grow under the watchful eye of The Great Architect of the Universe in Brotherly Love, Relief and Truth.

WB John Roberts
