

Guarantee

Should the instrument get out of order on account of defective material or workmanship any time within two years from date of shipment, we will quickly repair the same, gratis, customer paying transportation charges to and from our factory or nearest agency capable of making the necessary repairs; or, if repairs are desired made where the instrument is located, the customer will pay the traveling expense of the repairman from and back to our factory or nearest agency capable of making the necessary repairs. Any repairs made without our knowledge or consent or contrary to our directions or those of our representative will be at the expense and risk of the customer. This agreement does not cover Violin strings, rosins, fuse plugs, motors, magnets or bows.

MILLS NOVELTY COMPANY
CHICAGO, ILL.