ATTENTION SHORT-TERM RENTAL OWNERS

by Bobbi Bryant Taylor

This article is as of January 24, 2024 – Short-Term Rental (STR) policies and regulations are fluid at this point in time. More rules and regulations that may apply to STRs, especially from New York State, may be forthcoming, so please check the town, county, and state websites often for updates.

Warren County Bed/Occupancy Tax

The Warren County Short-Term Rental (STR) Law stipulates that municipalities (like the Town of Hague) cannot process local STR registrations without proof of county registration first. So, Hague cannot issue any STR paperwork without proof of Warren County STR registration, which consists of a Certificate of Authorization and an STR filing number. (Continued on p. 7)

TOWN OF HAGUE SURVEY

The Town of Hague sent the following letter out with tax bills in late December. If you haven't already responded, please do.

Dear Hague Resident:

The Town of Hague is working with the community to update the 2017 Comprehensive Plan.

The Town is pleased to invite you to participate in our community's planning process by expressing your opinions regarding the future of the community in a Community Preference Survey.

The survey is presented through Survey Monkey, an online survey software company.

The direct hyperlink to the survey is: <https://www.surveymonkey.com/r/3ZZ2TYX>.

The survey takes approximately 15 minutes to complete. Please limit your responses to one survey per household. To make sure all residents have access to the survey, a paper version was sent out in the mail in tax bills to all property owners at the end of December.

Paper surveys should be mailed to: Supervisor Patchett, Town of Hague, PO Box 509, Hague, NY 12836. You may also drop them off at the Community Center at 9793 Graphite Mt. Rd.

Please return the survey by February 28, 2025.

Thank you for sharing your thoughts with us. Your participation and input will be a valuable resource for our community!

SENIORS CLUB NEWS

by Pat Hintze

Many of our members have recently been sick, so we got off to a slow start in January.

At the meeting on January 28, 2025, we installed the new board, consisting of President Patricia Hintze, Vice President Edna Frasier, Secretary Jean Yeager, Treasurer Maureen Cherubini, and Trustees Diane Snyder and Linda Carpinello.

Thank you to Annette Lamanna-Wells for serving as vice president. She will still be helping to set up some trips. Thanks to Karen Lucas for years of help, for being a trustee this past year, and for being part of our set-up crew. We wish Karen and Leo the best of happiness and health as they step into the next chapter of their lives. God bless you both; you will be sorely missed.

If the weather cooperates, on February 1st, we'll be going to see the Saranac Ice Castle and the fireworks. Game night will be February 6th at 6:30 pm at my house, so come on out and have a few laughs and snacks. Our meeting will be

by Bobbie-Jean Fish

The Hague Fish & Game Club will hold its annual ice fishing tournament on February 23 and 24, 2025, so think ice!

Preregistration will be at the following businesses two weeks before the event:

- Hague Fish & Game Club
- Silver Bay General Store
- Norm's Bait & Tackle in Crown Point
- Fish307 in Lake George
- FMB Bait & Tackle Shop in Port Henry
- The Crossroads Country Store in Chestertown

The categories will be: lake trout, perch, salmon, and pike. The weigh station will be at the Hague Fish & Game Clubhouse at 488 West Hague Road on Saturday from 8 am – 3 pm and on Sunday from 8 am – 3 pm sharp. Awards will be given out at 4 pm. ❑

HVFD

by Donna Trudeau

The Hague Volunteer Fire Department (HVFD) had seven fire calls and four training drills for a total of 169 fire volunteer hours. There were seven EMS assistance calls and two standbys for mutual aid response. EMS had 14 calls for EMS service and training drills for a total of 86 volunteer and paid hours.

When the road conditions are unfavorable, be cautious! Remember, no ice is safe ice!

The first survival tip in cold weather is to be prepared! If you go out on the lake, make sure you're dressed for the cold. Your warm clothes may weigh you down, though, so be sure to also wear a personal flotation device (pfd). Try not to go out alone. Be safe! ❑

SCHOOL ADVISORY COMMITTEE (SAC) UPDATE

by Committee Chair Jack Bast

Parents

The Committee is reaching out to Hague parents with children currently or recently enrolled in the Ticonderoga Central School District (CSD) to get a measure of how they rate their children's education there. Parents are strongly urged to promptly contact me at jackbast@nycap.rr.com to help SAC in its endeavors to accurately understand the situation and where it can be improved.

Members

The Committee has openings for three new members. Candidates interested in improving Ticonderoga CSD education and advocating for a fairer and more equitable school tax system are urged to promptly contact me at jackbast@nycap.rr.com. Together we can make a much-needed difference.

Board of Education (BoE)

Hague needs additional representation on the BoE besides our faithful Donna Wotton. Candidates for the elections of the three open positions in May must submit their intent and their qualifications to the Ticonderoga CSD promptly. Who from Hague will step up so we can support them?

The BoE meets monthly at 6 pm in the high school cafeteria in Ticonderoga. Check the school website calendar for specific dates HERE. The SAC believes that until the BoE begins to stream their meetings, Hague in-person attendance is critical to demonstrate that we really are interested. BE THERE!

PILOT Agreements and Their Impact on Hague Taxpayers

The Town of Ticonderoga and the Ticonderoga CSD BoE recently finalized seven Payment in Lieu of Taxes (PILOT) agreements for seven energy projects. Despite the fact that these agreements affect school taxes, the Town of Hague, which is responsible for over 56% of the school tax levy, was excluded from the negotiations. Documented efforts by Hague to participate in future PILOT discussions have largely been dismissed by both Ticonderoga and the Ticonderoga CSD BoE.

Future involvement is important because the SAC investigation into the seven existing PILOTS identified very unfavorable negotiated terms for Hague and for Ticonderoga taxpayers. The BoE, in fact, missed opportunities to secure very significant additional annual school revenues from these energy projects. As a result, taxpayers are left to cover the shortfall instead of the energy projects contributing their fair share. Detailed findings are outlined in a draft White Paper currently under review by the Hague Town Board. A copy is available by emailing me at jackbast@nycap.rr.com.

While the existing PILOT agreements cannot be renegotiated, the CSD BoE has

2025 HAGUE MEMORY TREE

Hague's Memory Tree was launched in 1988 in memory of Dale W. Frasier, who passed away on Fathers' Day 1987. The goals of the Memory Tree were to keep Dale's spirit alive and to support the Hague Ambulance Squad.

In the past 35 years, the event has raised thousands of dollars through one-dollar (or higher) donations.

Due to a transition in bookkeeping this year, the names of additional donors will be listed in our March issue.

Thank you to everyone who has donated!

legal authority to include the Full Market Values of the energy projects—estimated at over $150 million—in the school tax levy apportionment. This adjustment would reduce Hague's 56% share of the levy. However, the BoE has definitively denied Hague's documented requests to make this change, both for the 2024 levy and even in future calculations.

Advocacy for reversing this policy is essential to ensure a fairer tax burden for Hague residents. ■

WALK ON WATER TO DOME ISLAND

The Lake George Land Conservancy's (LGLC's) annual trek to Dome Island is scheduled for February 14 and 15, 2025, if ice conditions allow.

This is a one-mile walk/snowshoe/ski across the frozen lake to visit the island John Apperson donated to The Nature Conservancy for permanent protection. Spots are limited and fill up VERY quickly. The $10 per person fee is non-refundable. Click HERE for more information. ❑

ICE-EATERS

Here is an important tip from the the Lake George Park Commission (LGPC) regarding ice-eaters: Turn your de-icing device(s) off before the ice starts to melt. By doing this, you will allow a thin sheet of ice to form between your dock and the rest of the ice on the lake. This thin ice sheet will not harm your dock; it will help stabilize the ice cake and it will keep your dock safe as the ice on the lake breaks up.

If you keep your de-icer running as the ice breaks up, and thus have open water around your dock, you will be a sitting duck for thick ice sheets to blow across the open water and crash into your dock. Click HERE for more information. ❑

ATTENTION SHORT-TERM RENTAL OWNERS, CONT.

So, I'll begin this article by discussing registration of an STR in Warren County.

Since 2004 (for hotels) and 2018 (for private homes), STR owners have been required to collect a 4% bed/occupancy tax and to remit it to Warren County. But, not everyone has complied with that requirement. According to Warren County Attorney Larry Elmen, "If people fail to register their properties and fail to pay the tax, they are committing tax evasion, which is subject to criminal action."

Warren County Treasurer Christine Norton explained to The Hague Chronicle that, while the Local Occupancy Tax Law stipulates fines up to $1,000 and/or jail time for not registering STRs, these fines have never been enforced. Warren County is considering making that penalty $5,000 because it wants folks to understand how serious this will be going forward.

Those trying to "fly under the radar" need to understand that Warren County has access to a third-party provider named Granicus that scours/data mines internet bookings via Airbnb, Expedia, VRBO, etc. The information the county sees on this site proves which properties are being rented. By using Granicus, the county has found 125 non-registered properties to date, with another 100 being confirmed. The owners of these properties are now registering and paying – current and prior year – occupancy tax due based on validated rental history. These past due occupancy taxes are subject to a 5% penalty and a 1%/month (12%/annum) interest charge. These fines and penalties add up to significant dollars!

For folks who rent out homes, hotels, or cabins that are "generational rentals" (where owners don't advertise and renters don't use booking platforms): these are often reported by concerned citizens or neighbors who think it's unfair that they pay an occupancy tax while their neighbors do not.

Norton's "2025 Amnesty Program"

Because Warren County is not looking to be punitive and just wants folks to "do the right thing," Norton's office has decided to offer "amnesty" (a pardon) without penalties or retroactive charges throughout 2025 for non-compliant STR owners who were not found through the county's data mining efforts on the internet IF they will register and pay occupancy tax going forward.

However, Norton emphasized, "Starting in 2026, fines WILL BE enforced annually and retroactively, without exception, for non-compliance."

Steps for Occupancy Tax Compliance:

1. Register at Warren County Bed Tax Registration, via this FORM.
2. File occupancy tax returns (monthly, quarterly, or annually) via this FORM.
3. Remit the tax collected from occupants to the county on or before the required due dates.

Hague Town STR

Once STR owners have their Certificates of Authorization and STR filing numbers from Warren County, they can go through the steps for local Town of Hague STR compliance.

Some background here: In early 2024, the Town of Hague formed a committee to develop a Short-Term Rental (STR) Law. After extensive discussions, STR Local Law #1 was initially defeated on March 12th but was passed on June 13th after three changes were made.

This local STR law will be enforced by Hague Zoning Enforcement Officer (ZEO) Ed Kirshberger.

Steps for Local STR Compliance:

1. Homeowners planning to rent their properties should read the details and complete the necessary forms found HERE. Then, they must submit those completed forms and a $300 fee to the ZEO's office.
2. Fire Inspection: Next, contact Warren County Fire Inspector Charles Wallace at 518-761-7671 to obtain and submit a form. Then, set up an appointment for an inspection. (Seasonal owners should wait to request an inspection until close to when they will arrive as Wallace must get inside the property.) Because his office wants to only make one visit, they will tell folks how to prepare so they can hand the owners the appropriate paperwork when they finish the inspection. He will check for violations, electrical hazards, and safety measures like smoke/carbon monoxide detectors, handrails, etc.

ZEO Inspection: After the county fire inspection, Hague ZEO Kirshberger will conduct his own inspection. Based on the information he gathers, a permit will be issued or denied. The ZEO will set the allowable occupancy for each rental and post it on the permit. Once each application is approved, the ZEO will notify the applicant so he can begin advertising the rental even before he picks up the physical permit. The permit will then be issued and made available for pick up in the zoning office at the Hague Community Center.

This permit must be issued before owners may advertise on platforms like Airbnb or VRBO!

Kirshberger stated to The Hague Chronicle, "I know who the people are in Hague who have been renting STRs and they need to come forward now to register. My goal is compliance and I want to help protect people. If they do not come forward, I have severe tools at my disposal to enforce the law."

Properties cannot be rented until both the town and the county permits are obtained.

New York State Sales Tax

Although the registry of STRs will be with the counties (and also with the towns that have STR laws) and not with NYS itself, beginning in March 2025, NYS will require that STRs pay a 7% state sales tax. This is because of the Short-Term Rental Registry Law that Governor Hochul recently approved.

This levels the playing field with hotels and motels and is expected to generate substantial revenue, with Warren County estimating a $1.2 million lift annually, according to Norton.

Platforms like Airbnb and VRBO will be required to report STR data to NYS quarterly, including locations and taxes collected. They must also collect and remit occupancy tax to the county .

STR owners who rent privately must navigate these updated regulations carefully. With new inspection requirements, county occupancy taxes, and state sales taxes, compliance is essential to avoid fines and legal action. Both the 4% occupancy tax and 7% sales tax should be collected from tenants and are the owner's responsibility to remit.

- Tuesday, March 18, 2025, at 7 pm, Show & Tell: Do you have an interesting object in your home, perhaps with a fascinating story? Or perhaps you have always wondered what this thing is and want to learn more. At a similar event held last year, people showed up with a wide variety of items including photos, a painting, an interesting letter, items from a now-defunct Hague restaurant, garden dwarfs, and a few objects that kept us all guessing. By the end of the evening, we had learned a lot and even figured out what all of the mystery objects were – with a little help from the Google Lens app. This is the perfect antidote for cabin fever.
- Wednesday, June 25th at 7 pm, Annual Meeting and Presentation: Join us for a presentation about the museum exhibit and the history of the Cave site.

SILVER BAY HAPPENINGS

Yoga classes for all ages are returning to Silver Bay in the dance studio at Fisher Gymnasium from 4 to 5 pm every Wednesday through June 26, 2025.

Silver Bay is now offering private and group swim lessons for youth ages 5 - 12 at the Moriah Central High School, 39 Viking Lane, Port Henry. Lessons will be taught by Silver Bay's Aquatics Director Caleb Cutting.

The Learn-to-Swim Program focuses on building skills one step at a time. By giving youth the opportunity to master one element before moving on to the next, these swim lessons make it easy to build confidence in the water.

The swim lessons started on January 25th with a free open class. Regular sessions will start February 1st and go through May 10th. Sessions are held from 10-10:30 am and 10:30-11 am.

OPPORTUNITY TO HELP PROTECT LAKE GEORGE

The Lake George Association (LGA) is looking for one or two volunteers to help it gather data through the Citizen Statewide Lake Assessment Program (CSLAP). Volunteers will take shallow and deep-water samples eight times throughout the summer season (every two weeks). Samples will be submitted to the New York State Federation of Lake Associations (NYSFOLA) for assessment. This effort will help the LGA to obtain consistent data throughout the season. Volunteers must have access to a boat.

For more information, please reach out to Lindsey Kenna HERE.

LAKE GEORGE PARK COMMISSION ISSUES ANNUAL REPORT

The Lake George Park Commission (LGPC) recently issued its 2024 Annual Report, which provides a wealth of facts, figures, and other information about the agency's activities in 2024. The report includes updates on a wide variety of issues, including the septic inspection program, partnerships with other organizations, and addressing upland threats.

The report also covers the agency's Eurasian water milfoil management efforts, which include hand harvesting and treatment with the herbicide ProcellaCOR. Additionally, it discusses how it is keeping other invasive species out of Lake George, presents a report on the marine patrol, and describes regulatory and permitting activities.

LGA PODCAST ON ROAD SALT

As previously reported, the Lake George Association (LGA) has launched a podcast channel, presenting information about preserving Lake George's legendary water quality.

In the most recent podcast – the fifth in the series – Lake George Waterkeeper Chris Navitsky talks about road salt and the impact it has on water quality. While road salt is necessary for safety, excessive use of it leads to environmental problems, including chloride accumulation in water, which disrupts lake turnover, harms aquatic life like zooplankton, and affects local infrastructure. Click HERE for more information. ❏

PAID SUMMER INTERNSHIP AT LGLC

The Lake George Land Conservancy (LGLC) is accepting applications for a paid summer internship position for 2025.

This position will support the work of the Education and Outreach Program and the Conservation Program. The intern will work alongside staff to learn about land management and will help coordinate various summer events designed to educate the public and to raise funds.

Applications are due by March 1, 2025. Click HERE for more information. ❏

SCHOOL ADVISORY COMMITTEE ATTENDS 2024 RURAL SCHOOLS ASSOCIATION CONFERENCE by Linda Fusco

Beth Barton-Navitsky and I represented the Hague School Advisory Committee (SAC) at the Rural Schools Association (RSA) of New York State (NYS) 2024 Winter Conference. It was called "Building A Bridge Over Troubled Water" and was held December 4-5, 2024, at the Excelsior Springs Event Center in Saratoga.

RSA brings school educators together to address issues affecting students in rural schools, such as how the Foundation Fund Aid Formula (based on school enrollment) does not distinguish between urban, suburban, or rural New York State school districts. This leaves districts such as ours, which has experienced declining enrollment since 2008, at a disadvantage.

Attending the conference provided us the opportunity to connect with state education officials. We met Dr. Roger Catania, the NYS Regent for Rural Schools, who lives in Saranac Lake. A former superintendent of schools, he spoke about the impact of proposed state policies on rural education, which included last summer's 2024 public hearings on the Rockefeller Institute's study on state aid. The SAC plans to invite Catania to support initiatives to improve our school system's poor math and ELA ratings on state exams.

Dr. Betty Rosa, NYS Commissioner of Education and RSA Leader of the Year, presented information on the changes in graduation requirements, graduation pathways, regionalism, staffing shortages, and other issues facing all NY school districts this year. She thanked her team for enlightening her on the rural issues, as most of her time has been spent on issues faced by city and suburban school districts.

Robert Megna, Rockefeller Institute president and former state budget director, along with Dr. Brian Backstrom, Rockefeller Institute education policy director, presented the findings and recommendations contained in their 314-page "Report to the Governor and Legislature on Foundation Aid Reform," which can be found HERE. Currently, the Foundation Aid uses a two-decades-old algorithm to calculate district state aid. The report summarized a series of public hearings, including ones in rural districts, which used feedback from school communities to update and revise the granting of Foundation Aid to address more current district issues.

The report itself has no impact on revising state aid, which is solely contingent on the NYS legislature voting on policy changes. RSA updates us on the voting on legislative policies and on Governor Hochul's latest education updates, such as evidence that many homes lack access to age-appropriate books and reading materials, and that children from low-income family backgrounds may be exposed to only 25 hours of one-on-one picture-book reading compared to 1,000+ hours for children from middle-class homes prior to kindergarten.

Finally, the RSA presented its Appreciation Award to Mike Ford. Ford has over 40 years of experience as a rural school educator. He remarked that not one rural district in NYS could produce a national science award winner. Only urban and suburban districts had the programs to support student national achievement. He strongly recommended that rural schools provide stellar academic environments that would foster reading and mathematics achievement.

LOOKING BACK

THE HAGUE CHRONICLE FEBRUARY 1975 — 50 YEARS AGO

Calista L. Streeter

Mrs. Calista L. Streeter died at her home on Streeter Hill Road on January 13. She was 79 years old.

Survivors include seven daughters and four sons: Mrs. Marjorie S. Noyes and Mrs. Helen Fairlee of Albany; Mrs. Marion Bailey of Loudonville; Mrs. Elenore Sinkle, Mrs. Lillian Murray, and Mrs. Calista Murray of Diamond Point; Elmer E. of Schenectady; Gordon J. of Scotia; Robert S. of Ticonderoga; and Mrs. Ruth Robbins and Joseph F. Streeter of Hague. Mrs. Streeter is also survived by 24 grandchildren, four great-grandchildren and two sisters, Mrs. Hattie Holman of Hague and Mrs. Jennie Sturtevant of Ticonderoga.

Services were held at the Wesleyan Church in Hague with the Rev. Edward Elliot officiating. Memories may be made in the form of contributions to the Wesleyan Church.

FEBRUARY 2025 — UPDATE

It is believed that all of Calista's children attended Hague Central School. Sadly, most of them have passed away. The following members of Calista's family remained in Hague and contributed much to the town and its people:

Joseph F. Streeter was born in Hague and was a graduate of Hague Central School. Joe was a kind, gentle man with a contagious smile. He was involved in the Town of Hague in many ways. He raised his family here; was a fifth-grade teacher at Hague Central School; was an elected member of the Hague Town Board; was a Hague police officer; and was a patrol officer on our beautiful Lake George. He passed away on August 24, 2007 at the age of 71. According to his obituary, he was also a psychiatric assistant and taught at Teen Challenge.

Mrs. Ruth (Streeter) Robbins was born in Hague, was a lifelong resident of Hague, and was a graduate of Hague Central School. She exhibited the same kind gentleness as her brother, Joe, and she had a silly laugh that brought a smile to everyone's lips. Ruth was employed for many years at Hague Central School as the secretary to the principal. She was also a secretary for the Hague Chamber of Commerce, and a member and treasurer of the Hague Wesleyan Church. She passed away on June 14, 2010 at the age of 85.

For those of us fortunate enough to have been one of those fifth-grade students or to have known this family and its relatives, whether through their company, friendship, or even a passing hello accompanied by a smile, the memories are warm and genuine. ▣

WHAT'S HAPPENING AT THE FORT

Thanks to the support of Americana Corner, Fort Ticonderoga is recreating two American artillery pieces, complete with carriages, inert ammunition, and tools used by Continental Army artillerymen. These reproductions, based on artifacts in the fort's collection, will allow visitors hands-on exploration of items central to Ticonderoga's pivotal Revolutionary War moments.

The project is part of the fort's multi-year initiative, REAL TIME REVOLUTION™, an immersive experience capturing the events and people leading to American independence from 1774 to 1777.

"Artillery played a critical role in Ticonderoga's history, from inspiring its 1775 capture to thwarting British invasion in 1776," said Vice President of Public History Stuart Lillie. "Cannons connect visitors to the Revolutionary War's physical and logistical challenges, vividly illustrating feats like Henry Knox's delivery of Ticonderoga's guns to the siege of Boston."

Fort Ticonderoga President and CEO Beth L. Hill added, "These artillery pieces will go beyond spectacle, connecting visitors to the science and strategy of artillery. Hands-on experiences will engage young visitors with math, geography, and history, while live demonstrations will evoke the uncertainty of freedom's struggle."

Funded through Americana Corner's Preserving America Partners program, the project will expand Fort Ticonderoga's storytelling and inspire new generations. REAL TIME REVOLUTION™ will bring this history to life through 2027 and beyond.

TI SCHOOL PLANETARIUM PROGRAM

by Linda Fusco

On Saturday January 4, 2025, at 3 pm, a full house of 30 community residents attended the Ticonderoga School Planetarium program called "The Winter Sky." Celestially it was "perihelion," a special day, which occurs each year when the earth is closest to the sun.

Joe Defayette, the Ticonderoga Jr./Sr. High School earth science teacher, demonstrated which constellations, planets, meteor showers, and special celestial events participants could view over the next three months. In the first part of the program, he introduced the types of telescopes used to view the sky.

Attendees received an information packet that included a sky chart that displayed the common winter constellations (e.g., Orion, Taurus, Gemini), stars (e.g., Polaris and the North Star), and planets (e.g., Mars and Venus). The packet included a calendar of events such as the January 4-11, 2025, Quadrantids Meteor Showers and the January 13th rare occultation of Mars by the moon, which were all visible to the naked eye.

Participants were encouraged to download the SkyView® Lite app – a free way to view the skies on smartphones and iPads, and Astronomy for Mere Mortals, a free textbook from the website HERE.

There were requests from the participants to arrange for viewings in the field using the Ticonderoga portable telescope and to create a special planetarium program for elementary-age children. The program scheduled for March 2025 will focus on the spring sky.

For further information and copies of the "The Winter Sky" program information, please contact me HERE or by phone/text at 914-380-2130.
