ICE-OUT 2025

by Bobbi Bryant Taylor

On March 23, 2025, Lake George Waterkeeper Chris Navitsky told The Hague Chronicle that ice-out for 2025 had occurred on Friday, March 21st.

So, this year, the lake was frozen from February 5th through March 21st. By my count, that is 45 days. When the lake does freeze, it is frozen solid for an average of 76 days, so this was 31 days less than the average number of days.

Although not an official definition, Navitsky defines "ice-out" as: "When there is no more ice on the lake to prevent boating on the entire lake and if there is no more concern about dock damage." ❑

SHORT-TERM RENTAL UPDATE

by Bobbi Bryant Taylor

In our February issue, I outlined how to comply with the Warren County and Town of Hague Short-Term Rental (STR) laws. My main point was that residents who are renting their properties on a short-term basis MUST now register with Warren County and the Town of Hague or face stiff penalties.

New York State (NYS) has now passed a law requiring all STRs to start paying sales tax as of March 1, 2025.

NO PROCELLACOR THIS YEAR

According to a recent report in The Adirondack Explorer, Dave Wick, executive director of the Lake George Park Commission (LGPC), said he does not plan to pursue another application of the herbicide ProcellaCOR in Lake George this year.

The LGPC plans to work with the Lake George Association (LGA) on an invasive species management plan. The LGA will continue to monitor the ecosystem of the two bays in Lake George's north basin where the LGPC applied ProcellaCOR last June. ❑

STATE OF THE TOWN

by Supervisor Joshua Patchett

The foundation for Hague's success was, is and will always be, dependent on protecting Lake George. Water quality and land conservation need to be at the heart of our focus indefinitely. Protecting the integrity of our community, while simultaneously preserving our affordable housing stock, I also view as non-negotiable priority items for the town. The town is changing and evolving at an alarming rate, with a lot of moving pieces involved that require a delicate balanced approach to achieve our goals. I ask myself often what a successful administration looks like. The answer is subjective, however, there are certain things we must do with excellence, including fiscal responsibility, staff development, and maintaining strong infrastructure.

SAC UPDATE

by Jack Bast, Hague SAC Committee Chair

At the Hague Town Hall on March 13, 2025, the Hague School Advisory Committee (SAC) provided an update on its activities since its formation in May 2023. Over 75 residents attended, including several from Ticonderoga.

SAC reported key findings in two critical areas: Academic Performance and PILOT (Payment in Lieu of Taxes) Agreements related to energy projects in Ticonderoga.

ACADEMIC PERFORMANCE CONCERNS:

- The Ticonderoga Central School District (TCSD) academic performance is not up to expectations.
- Grades three through eight proficiency lags behind New York State (NYS) and some neighboring districts.
- The low high school graduation rate is troubling.

PILOT AGREEMENT ISSUES:

- The TCSD Board of Education (BoE) has forfeited up to $1M annually for 30 years by missing PILOT opportunities.
- Excluding energy project Full Market Values (FMVs) from tax calculations increases Hague's tax burden.

Full details from the meeting are available in these ways:

- Two White Papers and the complete presentation are available on the SAC page of the Hague website HERE.
- Hard copy handouts are available at the Hague Community Center front desk.
- A recording of the meeting is on YouTube HERE (fast forward to 1:55).

HVFD

by Donna Trudeau

The Hague Volunteer Fire Department (HVFD) ended the month of February with four fire calls, four drills, one standby for Ticonderoga, and four EMS assists for a total of 86 volunteer hours.

EMS ended the month of February with seven calls and one standby for a total of 45.5 paid and volunteer hours.

We want to thank everyone who made our Polar Plunge and Chili Cook-off successes. The total we gave to the UVM Children's Miracle Network was $1,220. Thanks to the Trout House Village Resort, Paradox Crafts, Stewart's, Michael Begnoche, Daniel Whitford, and the Town of Hague community for all the support. A special thanks goes to Amie Vradenburg.

There will be an important meeting at the Hague Community Center on April 2, 2025, at 5:30 pm to explain some changes that are occurring regarding billing for local ambulance services.

In 2023, a federal law was passed that said that fire departments could bill patients for emergency services. NY State did not put the law into effect at that time, but now it has. Due to the law and an increase in call volumes, changes in protocols, and need for equipment, we have made the decision to go to a system of billing patients for ambulance services. This will help us sustain our ambulance service.

The HVFD is still working out the details, but it is expected that bills for ambulance services will be submitted to the patients' insurance companies and the amount that the insurance companies pay will be all that is required. The money that is collected will only be used for ambulance service recovery costs. Patients should not have to pay anything out of pocket.

We believe that this will shift the burden of payment from taxpayers to insurance companies and that it should reduce the need for taxes on the general public to increase.

In addition to holding the meeting on April 2nd, we will send a letter to each resident of Hague explaining this.

We're excited to announce that we'll be holding our first Fireman's Chili Cook-off Challenge on Saturday, April 26, 2025, from 12 to 5 pm. We're inviting each department in every fire station to enter. There will be a basket raffle, a 50/50, and a door prize. Please RSVP to 518-543-6059 by April 15th. The entrance fee is by donation and the proceeds will go for new turnout gear for the department. ❑

HAGUE FISH & GAME CLUB EASTER EGG HUNT

The Hague Fish & Game Club will hold an Easter Egg Hunt on Saturday, April 12, 2025, at 1 pm at the Hague Volunteer Firehouse. There will be light snacks and juice and opportunities for fun and photos. ❑

HVFD TOWN SEEK BOAT SLIP

The Hague Volunteer Fire Department (HVFD) and the Town of Hague are looking for a boat slip to house the Hague Fire and EMS boat this season, as water depth has become an issue at its current location.

They hope to find a centrally located slip near the Town of Hague Beach, either for rent or by donation.

Anyone with an available slip is encouraged to contact the HVFD at 518-543-6059 or Town Supervisor Joshua Patchett at 518-543-6161, ext. 12. ❑

SHORT TERM RENTAL, CONT'D

So, property owners are looking at triple fines and penalties if they do not register NOW.

In a conversation with Hague ZEO Ed Kirchberger on March 20th, he said that he has received very few applications since my February article and that he knows of many people who are, in fact, renting out their homes. His message was clear: "You need to register your STRs. We will find and issue tickets to all who are violating the local law. The procedure is simple; just go on our website, follow directions and be sure not to rent or even advertise available rental dates until you have been issued a permit. Renting without a permit will make you ineligible to rent your STR in the future and advertising available dates without a permit will result in a ticket." He is getting ready to send out a long list of penalties to people who have not yet registered, but are showing available rental dates.

Warren County Treasurer Christine Norton is still offering 2025 as a "Year of Amnesty." If property owners who have been "flying under the radar" and, who have NOT been identified by the county, will come forward now and complete the registration process for Warren County, there will be no fines, penalties, or other consequences. She told me, "If they continue to ignore the law, it will just be a matter of time before their unregistered STR is identified and, starting in 2026, all fines, penalties and other consequences will be applied."

So, I urge property owners to comply with all STR procedures. Yes, it takes a bit of time to complete all the paperwork and it will cost $300 for three years plus the county and state taxes each year. But, it's the law, you could face severe consequences if you don't, and it's the right thing to do.

Here is the step-by-step process:

- Complete and submit the Warren County Occupancy Tax Registration Form found HERE.
- Complete and submit the Warren County Occupancy Tax Return Form found HERE.

- The Warren County Treasurer's Office will then send you three documents:
 - a. Your Certificate of Authorization ("Bed Tax Certificate") with your unique four-digit number.
 - b. A letter explaining the process.
 - c. A blank Tax Return Form for you to complete based on when and how you rent your property. Complete and submit it.
- Go HERE and read the information. Complete the two-page form and the one-page site layout drawing HERE.
- Send these forms, a check in the amount of $300 made out to "Town of Hague Zoning Enforcement Office," and the paperwork you received from Warren County to: Hague ZEO Kirchberger, Hague Community Center, 9793 Graphite Mountain Road, PO Box 509, Hague, NY 12836.
- Call 518-761-6542 between 8 and 10 am M-F to set up an appointment for Warren County Fire Inspector Charles Wallace or his associate, Brian, to inspect your home. You must be present at the inspection.
- After that inspection, call ZEO Kirchberger at 518-543-6161 to set up an appointment for him to come to your property to do a final inspection. You must also be present at the inspection. He will confirm everything you have stated on your paperwork and will inform you of how many guests may stay in your STR property.
- When you are notified that it is ready, pick up your Town of Hague Zoning Compliance Certificate at the Hague Community Center. ONLY THEN MAY YOU ADVERTISE YOUR PROPERTY FOR RENT OR CONTRACT WITH ANYONE TO RENT IT!
- According to Kirchberger:
 - a. If you advertise available booking dates for your property for rent before you have your permit, you will be fined not less than $100 and not more than $500 for the first offense; $500 to $1,000 for the second offense; and, if you commit a third offense, you will have your STR permit revoked PERMANENTLY. (You may state that you have a property that is "coming available soon.")
 - b. If you rent out your property without a permit, you will PERMANENTLY lose the opportunity to rent it, plus, you will be fined.
- If you rent your property privately, when the tenants sign their contracts and pay your fee, you must also collect a 4% Warren County tax and a 7.25% NYS tax.
- Your Occupancy Tax should be mailed to: The Warren County Treasurer, 1340 State Rt. 9 Lake George NY, 12845.
- You can find exact details on how to remit your NYS Sales Tax HERE.
- If you rent through a booking platform like AirBnb or VRBO, it will notify the county that you are using its platform and it will collect both the Warren County Occupancy Tax and the NYS Sales Tax (on GROSS revenues) directly from your renters and submit them to the respective agencies.

ZONING BOARD OF APPEALS - 2/27/2025

Present were Chairman Robert Goetsch and Board Members Chris Richards, Jon Hanna, and Tina Barth-King. Absent was Board Member Chris Navitsky. Also present were Zoning Enforcement Officer Ed Kirchberger, Recording Secretary Kathy Santaniello, and Tony DeFranco.

PUBLIC HEARING - ZONING ISSUES: BOSCO – 28 FRIENDS POINT SOUTH – VARIANCE REQUEST

The applicant, represented by Tony DeFranco, seeks to construct a new lakeside stone patio and replace timber steps with stone steps. The expanded patio will be permeable. The Planning Board gave a positive recommendation, with notes that native plants should be installed by the stone wall and stairs to strengthen the shoreline buffer, and that the wall must not exceed four feet in height unless another variance is granted.

Zoning issues include:

- Section 160-23 C (1) (g): Development within 100 feet of the lake
- Section 160-50 B (1) (b): Shoreline setback
- Section 160-52 A (1): Wall within 50 feet of the high-water mark

The issue of the wall arose because the plans list it as a "retaining wall," though the proposed structure is a tiered arrangement of boulders with plantings between, serving stormwater and soil retention purposes.

Barth-King questioned the patio size. Bosco said the current patio is too small for a dining table and they're expanding it while replacing the steps. DeFranco confirmed the square footage includes the wall and that native plantings will be added near the wall, stairs, and lakeshore.

A motion was made and seconded to close the public hearing. The vote was passed unanimously. A motion was then made and seconded to approve the application. The motion passed 3-1 (Barth-King).

OTHER BUSINESS

Zoning Enforcement Officer Kirchberger thanked members who attended recent training sessions and announced additional training opportunities coming up. He shared that the Zoning Department has a new email address: zoning@townofhague.gov.

This article was written by Bobbi Bryant Taylor, editor/publisher of The Hague Chronicle, from draft notes written by Recording Secretary Kathy Santaniello. ❏

PLANNING BOARD - 3/6/2025

Present were Chairman Sandra Powell and Board Members Pamela Peterson, Judy Gourley, Alane Vogel, and Henry Friedman. Also present were Zoning Enforcement Officer Ed Kirchberger, Recording Secretary Kathy Santaniello, and Tim and Karen Costello.

ZONING ISSUES: COSTELLO – 264 SUMMIT DRIVE – SUBDIVISION

Tim and Karen Costello appeared before the board with an application to subdivide their property at 264 Summit Drive (tax map 10-1-3.5), which spans OCII and RC zoning. The proposal is to separate the land into two parcels: Lot A with eight acres containing the residence and barn, and Lot B with sixty-seven acres to be gifted to their son. They explained that the residence will be placed in their son's name with a life lease for themselves.

Board members asked for clarification about survey maps and access to the lots. Tim Costello shared a larger version of the survey and discussed current and potential future access routes. The board confirmed the properties are not on a town sewer, have their own water sources, have established rights of way, and contain no designated wetlands.

A motion was made and seconded to deem the application complete. The vote was passed unanimously.

The board then completed all three parts of the Short Environmental Assessment Form (SEAF) with the applicant and signed the form. In lieu of a site visit, members were advised to use the satellite view on the town's website. A public hearing was scheduled for April 3rd.

OTHER BUSINESS

Board members were reminded to complete four hours of training in 2025, with several recommended sessions available through the New York State Department of State. ZEO Kirchberger distributed updated materials on subdivisions and reported that the zoning reference books will soon be reprinted. Powell emphasized the importance of referencing the town's comprehensive plan and shared that one planning board member is required to serve on the Hague Comprehensive Plan Committee.

The Adirondack Planning Forum will take place on May 8th at the Hotel Saranac. Powell and Vogel plan to attend, pending town board approval of the registration fee.

Powell shared key takeaways from a recent NY Department of State training, including the importance of completing State Environmental Quality Review (SEQR) forms and clearly documenting motions and decisions. Going forward, motions will be reviewed at meetings for accuracy.

ZEO Kirchberger outlined a procedure for timely draft and final minutes. Powell reminded the board that site visits are not open meetings and should not involve discussion of applications. She will distribute a land use flow chart and site plan checklist and encouraged board members to consider assisting with SEQR reviews and subdivision applications in the future.

STATE OF THE TOWN, CONT'D

FISCAL RESPONSIBILITY

In January of 2024, when I took office as your town supervisor, I also became the Chief Fiscal Officer for the town. One of my first actions was to develop an investment strategy, as I realized that we were missing out on approximately $200,000 in interest annually, based on interest rates at the time for our $5,000,000 of investable funds. I set up a meeting with our bank and was able to negotiate a $55,000 retroactive interest credit. Although this was a small amount relative to what we had missed out on, it was a step in the right direction. I then put almost all our investable funds into high-yield MMDA (money market deposit accounts), and we are now actively depositing funds in CDs. Our annual yield now is around $200,000 based on current rates. I have consulted with qualified financial advisors to ensure our strategy is sound.

ZERO TOWN TAX COMMITMENT

Maintaining our long-standing tradition of no town tax requires strategic fund management. My budget analysis confirms that continued creative investment of our fund balance is essential. I encourage residents to hold me and future supervisors accountable for maintaining sound fiscal policies to sustain this commitment.

KEY ACHIEVEMENTS

- Restructured staff responsibilities and hired skilled personnel.
- Implemented a cost-saving health insurance plan benefiting employees and the town.

- Passed a short-term rental law to protect affordable housing and community character.
- Secured $40,000 in grant funding.
- Earned the designation of a certified pro-housing community, enhancing future grant opportunities.
- Revamped the town food pantry with generous community support.
- Partnered with the Lake George Association to address sediment issues in the Hague Brook delta.
- Engaged the Warren County Planning Department to assist in securing funding for a new salt shed.
- Initiated updates to the Hague Comprehensive Plan and planning for the new Community/Visitors Center, with a spring presentation scheduled.

GRANTS: SUCCESSES AND FUTURE PURSUITS

While we secured $40,000 in grants, three applications were unsuccessful. We are actively refining our approach to increase future success rates.

SCHOOL ADVOCACY

I actively support the Hague School Advisory Committee (SAC) and its mission to advocate for quality education in Hague, Ticonderoga, and Putnam. I believe the Ticonderoga Central School District (TCSD) Board of Education (BoE) should live-stream meetings for accessibility and hold periodic sessions in Hague, given our 56% financial contribution to the district. Additionally, the superintendent should present the annual budget in Hague, and the BoE must ensure fair school tax apportionment, where they have both the discretion and authority to make limited adjustments.

HAGUE VOLUNTEER FIRE DEPARTMENT AND EMS

The Hague Volunteer Fire Department (HVFD) and EMS face financial and membership challenges. My analysis confirms that the HVFD is underfunded compared to similar towns. Some municipalities offer volunteer incentives like the Length of Service Award Program (LOSAP) to aid recruitment and retention. I encourage residents to attend the HVFD-hosted meeting that will be on April 2, at 5:30 pm at the community center to learn more.

INFRASTRUCTURE PRIORITIES

The Hague Town Board must ensure financial responsibility while addressing infrastructure needs, including:

- Highway Department Building: Upgrades needed as a priority.
- Community/Visitors Center: Necessary improvements must be planned with funding considerations.

CLOSING THOUGHTS

Our progress is only possible through teamwork. I appreciate my fellow board members, town employees, and the many dedicated residents of Hague. The key to success is not just the task itself — it is working together effectively and building lasting, respectful relationships.

Sincerely,
Town of Hague Supervisor
Joshua Patchett

DIED: Joan T. Jacoby, 94, of Silver Bay and Penney Farms, FL.

Born in Manchester, NH, Joan met her future husband, Walter, at the Silver Bay YMCA Conference Center when she was 15. They married in 1952.

She received her BA in Sociology from Drew University and then worked as a hospital social worker. They raised four children while Walt's YMCA career led them to NY, NJ, OH, WV, and Beirut, Lebanon.

Joan and Walter lived at Silver Bay from 1979 – 1985, when he was the director of Silver Bay YMCA.

Joan lived a life of service. For 65 years, she was a loving and dedicated wife and partner in her husband's career. She was a Girl Scout leader for several years. While in Lebanon, she frequently hosted YMCA volunteers, providing them with a home and support.

When they moved back to the states, Joan worked to support unwed pregnant teens as a house mother, a driver, and an informal counselor.

She also volunteered for Planned Parenthood for many years. She was an EMT when she lived in NY. She was the consummate hostess, always welcoming whomever her husband or children invited home.

Joan and Walt joined Penney Retirement Community in Penney Farms, FL in 1999. Joan became a "super volunteer," serving meals to assisted-living residents, painting hand-operated carts with Mobility Worldwide (PET), helping others with their taxes, serving as the chairperson for the annual CROP walk, and serving as a volunteer coordinator at the Fitness Center.

When Walt died in 2017, Joan missed one week of volunteering and then was right back to her regular activities. Joan was well known for hosting social hours for friends and newcomers.

Family was very important to Joan. She was an amazing, supportive mother and grandmother. She and Walt enjoyed camping, bicycling, sailing, and traveling with family and long-term friends. They also had a lifelong love of playing games, especially bridge.

Joan and Walt had a passion for traveling and learning about other cultures. They traveled to over 30 countries on five continents, often with family and friends. They organized and led YMCA cultural exchange trips to China.

Friends and family described Joan as very social, caring, and determined, noting that she was always reaching out to others and always welcomed friends and family into her home.

Joan was predeceased by her husband, her parents, and her sister, Carol.

She is survived by her: four children, Susan Jacoby (Susan Baumgardner), Gail Orser (Dave), Nancy Aman (James), and Russell Jacoby (Barbara Buchanan); five grandchildren, Christopher Jacoby (Zoelle Egner), Matthew Jacoby, Joshua Aman, Timothy Aman, Beth Aman (Mikael Ellingson); great-granddaughter, Anieve Jacoby; brothers, Norman and Donald; and numerous nieces and nephews.

A Celebration of Life was held at Penney Farms in February. Interment will be in New York this summer.

In lieu of flowers please consider remembering Joan by donating to Mobility Worldwide (PET) HERE or the Penney Farms CROP Hunger Walk HERE. 📌

SAFE BOATING CERTIFICATES

by Bobbi Bryant Taylor

The final phase of Brianna’s Law requires that ALL motorized boat operators in New York State, regardless of age, must have a safe boating certificate in the boat with them. The certificate can be earned in face-to-face or online courses. Click HERE to locate the best option for you.

There are 11 different online courses offered. Detailed descriptions of each are on the above website. I chose Aceboater. Even though I have been boating on Lake George since I was nine years old, I found the information in this course to be interesting and important. Some of it was new to me; some of it was a review from when I took Make Sure, Make Shore when I was in my teens. (Maybe you took that too?)

I found Aceboater to be generally easy to understand, although there were a few diagrams and questions I found to be somewhat ambiguous.

Most of these courses say they can be completed in "about three hours." Don't you believe it! I spent more than four times that on it. But, then, my dad's mantra was "If you're gonna do it, do it right!" So, I did.

I also did not want to have to retake the whole course if I failed it!

Let's all make Hague the safest place to boat on the lake! ☑

HAGUE HISTORICAL SOCIETY NEWS

by Ginger Henry Kuenzel, president of the Hague Historical Society

The Hague Historical Society's spring 2025 newsletter, which was published in mid-March, contains articles about ice harvesting before the days of refrigeration, ice harness racing in the early 20th century, and how tourists traveled to Hague before there was a road over Tongue Mountain.

In addition, Shelly Denno Gautreau shares her fun and fascinating memories of growing up in Hague in the 50s and 60s.

To subscribe, simply send an email to haguehistorical@gmail.com with your request. Include your name, email address, and mailing address. By subscribing, you'll not only learn about Hague's history, but will also be kept informed about upcoming events.

One of those is this year's blockbuster museum exhibit and presentation, which will cover the bars and hotels located on the site across from today's town park in the 19th and 20th centuries.

The most legendary of these was, without a doubt, the iconic Cave, a bar located below the Beachside Hotel. We have collected numerous stories from those who remember many a fine evening spent within those walls. We also have artifacts and photos, as well as a timeline of the inns and taverns that occupied the site throughout history.

In addition, we are putting together a list of bartenders across the years. If you or someone you know tended bar in the Cave, be sure to let us know by sending an email (haguehistorical@gmail.com). That's also the address to use if you have stories to share from those glory days. Discretion is guaranteed!

Our 2025 museum exhibit in the Hague Community Center will open in June. And be sure to mark your calendar for our annual meeting to be held in the community center on Wednesday, June 25, 2025, at 7 pm. We'll be relating the history of the various establishments on this site and sharing stories from more recent times. We anticipate that some of those in the audience will be inspired to relate their own tales from the Cave. You'll want to be sure to attend. After all, you may need to offer corrections or enhancements to the tales being told. This will be an interactive event that will surely be the talk of the town for years to come! ▣

LGLC HIKE-A-THON

The Lake George Land Conservancy's (LGLC) 13th annual Hike-A-Thon will be held on Saturday, July 5, 2025. This event showcases LGLC's parks and preserves as free public resources.

Hikes range from short, easy adventures to more challenging ones. About half of the hikes have already filled up, but there are still available slots in the other ones.

This is a great way to show your appreciation for the outdoors and help protect the land that protects the lake. Click HERE for more information and to register. ▣

LGLC PROTECTS 27 ACRES IN HAGUE

The Lake George Land Conservancy (LGLC) has permanently protected a 27-acre property in Hague that stretches one mile along NYS Route 9N from Forest Bay to the south end of Friends Point.

Dubbed the Forest Friends Mile, the roadside land provides a healthy-forested buffer between the road and the adjoining timberland, protecting water quality and the scenic beauty of the area. The property also connects to a 288-acre property protected by a conservation easement held by the LGLC, extending the benefits of interconnected areas of natural habitat.

This protection project was completed thanks to generous members of the Forest Bay and Friends Point communities who responded to a matching donation offered by a neighbor.

"This project is a great example of neighbors partnering with the LGLC to protect land that protects the future of Lake George," said LGLC Executive Director Mike Horn. "We are grateful for their foresight and commitment to protecting the forested character of the community for future generations."

Because of its proximity to Route 9N and lack of parking, this land will not be open to the public for recreation or hunting. ▣

by Hague Historical Society Board Members
Shelly Gautreau and Nancy Young

EXCERPTS FROM THE HAGUE CHRONICLE FROM APRIL 1975 (50 YEARS AGO):

HAGUE HISTORICAL SOCIETY

Mr. West was in charge of the program. It was built around the first minute books of the Town of Hague and covered official acts of the town from April 6, 1807 when the Town of Rochester was created by an act of the state legislature, until 1820. Previously the area had been a part of the Town of Bolton. On April 6, 1808 the name of the town was changed to Hague for reasons no one seems to know.

William Cook appears to be the first supervisor, with Uriah Balcom, Town Clerk, with Issac Balcom and Noah Woodward, assessors. Others who appear to have been leaders of the community were Samuel Patchin, John Holman and Elijah Bailey. Seventeen townsmen were listed as competent to serve as jurors. Some of the more interesting positions which the Board filled were "poormasters" who were assigned to look after the poor in the town; a "poundmaster" appointed to impound horses and other animals which may have strayed; and "fenceviewers" appointed to see that fences along roadways were adequate and built according to law.

The first act of the Town made it unlawful for hogs, horses and sheep, but not cattle, to run at large. In these early days it was the responsibility of persons whose property abutted on roadways to keep them in repair and the Board established "beats" and assigned them to specific persons to keep them in repair. At the town meeting in 1808 a motion to raise $30 for town expenses for the year was carried.

In the 1808 minutes an agreement is reproduced wherein the Overseers of the Poor, Nathan Taylor and Caleb Balcom, by and with the consent of the justices of the peace, Reuben Smith and James Eare, have "put and placed Harvey Gray, a poor child of the age of one" as apprentice to John Holman until he "shall accomplish his full age of twenty-one years". During this time, Holman will "instruct the apprentice in the art and trade of agriculture" and shall "provide him with sufficient meat, drink, and apparel and lodging and shall also teach him to read and write". At the expiration of the term he was required to give him a Bible and was also "to see that he did not become a charge on the town". (Harvey Gray seems to have done it all right. He is listed in the 1855 census as the owner of a 250 acre farm with 20 cows and 2 working oxen.)

In 1909 (1809, correction by S.G.) it was decided that $20 was enough to raise for poor money. A bounty of $5 was placed on wolves "until there are three wolves killed and no bounty on any more". One cent was required to be paid on each sheep and six cents on each swine that was found on the common or highway. Four years later these fines were raised to 6 cents for each sheep and 12 ½ cents for each swine.

The relationship between the town and the school is not entirely clear. However, in 1813 the sum of $30 was voted for the support of common schools and John Holman, John Hayford and William Cook were elected school commissioners. In 1819 the amount raised for schools was $60. At the annual meeting in 1820 it was agreed that the same sum be raised for support of common schools "as shall be received from the school fund the ensuing year". This looks like the beginning of revenue sharing or matching grants.

There is much more material on Hague's early days and from time to time we will relate parts of it to you.

50 YEARS LATER:

Within The History of Warren County (edited by H.P. Smith) is a section containing the "1885 History of the Town of Hague." Page 562 has this notation by H.P. Smith: "The town records of Hague up to 1822 have unhappily been lost".

However, the records were recovered on October 10, 2021 under a pile of stuff in an old shed/barn. They were turned in to the NYS Library and then transferred to the NYS Archives. After that, they were turned over to Town of Hague Clerk Debbie Manning and a receipt was signed by her. There are microfilmed pages of those minutes.

Mr. West had full knowledge of those minutes in 1975 when he gave his lengthy presentation. How did he possess that information? Were the records discovered in his barn?

This is a mystery that we, at the Hague Historical Society, would love to answer. Anyone who has information to share with us about this, please do so. Thank you! ■
